HOME (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir,

In G.O.No.1015, Home (Education) Department, dated 25th September 1916, Government were pleased to sanction the retention up to 31st December 1918 of the services of Miss Ruby A.A.Kenny as temporary lecturer in Needlework and dressmaking ~~for~~ European schools. As the Inspector of European and Training schools has found that she is not a suitable person for the post, he has been instructed to inform her that that her services will be retained up to 30th April 1917 only and I have the honour accordingly to request that her retention may have effect only up to that date. The Inspector of European and Training Schools suggests that, while the services of a lady to take Miss Kenny's place are being obtained, Miss Park may carry on the needlework as a branch of Domestic Economy and I support his suggestion.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Home (Education) Department.

C.No.1391 Edn. From the Director of Public Instruction, Madras, R.C.No.5724/16, dated the 15th March 1917.

Subject.

Retention up to the 30th April 1917 of the services of Miss Ruby A.A.Kenny, Lecturer in Needlework and Dress-making for European schools.

Miss Kenny was employed, with the sanction of the Government of India, as temporary lecturer in needlework and dress-making in connection with the scheme for the teaching of domestic science in European schools for a period of one year from February 1916. She was selected for the post as she possessed a teachers' certificate which was recognised by the London County Council and had taught for a time at a private school at Brighton - vide G.Os.Nos.1348-49 Educational, dated the 8th December 1915, and No.39, Educational, dated the 11th January 1916. Subsequently when the Government sanctioned the continuance up to the 31st December 1918 of the scheme for the extension of work in domestic science in connection with European schools, they also sanctioned on the recommendation of the Director of Public Instruction the retention up to that date of the services of Miss Kenny as temporary lecturer in needlework and dressmaking on a pay of Rs.300 a month - vide G.O.No.1015 Home (Education), dated the 25th September 1916.

2. The Director of Public Instruction now requests

(1) that the services of Miss Kenny may be retained up to the 30th April 1917 only the Inspector of European and Training schools has found that she is not a suitable person for the post, and (2) that Miss Park, lecturer on domestic science, may carry on the needlework as a branch of domestic economy until the services of a suitable lady to take the place of Miss Kenny are secured.

3. As regards (1) it may be noted that beyond the statement of the Inspector of European and Training schools that Miss Kenny "is not a suitable person for the post" no further ~~any~~ explanation has been given as to her unfitness now for that post. The statement of the Inspector may however be accepted and her services retained only up to the 30th April 1917 as requested by the Director.

4. As regards (2) there seems no objection to the acceptance of the suggestion that Miss Park may carry on needlework provided that she does not claim extra remuneration for the work. It may be noted that Miss Park's salary was increased from Rs.300 to Rs.325 from 1st October 1916 and she will get Rs.350 from 1st October 1917.

5. Subject to orders a draft order is submitted for approval.

Refer to your ltr of the 23rd instat. Miss Park will not claim anything extra for what it is now proposed that she should do. If the work at the Centre is restarted that is needlework and dressmaking, a separate lecturer would be required.
