My father is a retired Missionary of 35 years' service and is connected with many public institutions in this city.
He visited Europe in 1903 and is an Honorary Fellow of the University (Madras). He has done both literary and active work in the cause of education. My mother has, for a generation, performed honorary work in educating Hindu girls and the poor. On Durbar Day my parents were presented with Certificates of Honour by the Viceroy. An elder sister of mine is the acting Assistant Inspectress of Girls' Schools in Madras. My sisters and I have won four Gold Medals awarded by the Madras University for Honours in English. An uncle of mine, Mr. D. Lazarus of Waltair, has been a well-known educationist for the last 40 years. My mother's grandfather was a Judge in the Cochin State. As my father is a pensioner and has several other children to support and educate, with no other means to fall back upon, the scholarship I am seeking to obtain would be of great help to me in acquiring special training in England and thus enhance the possibilities of my usefulness to my country and my Indian sisters.
