Sir,

With reference to G.O.No.666 Educational dated 17th July 1913 I have the honour to submit the application with its enclosures of Miss Leonara Philipsz for the Government of India State Scholarship for educational training for 1917 for members of the domiciled community (female candidates) tenable in England.
Hers was the only application received this year and she has been an applicant during the past two years. She is at present an --- acting Professor in the Madras College for Women, and I beg to -- recommend her nomination for the scholarship.

2. I regret to find that in my letter R.C.No.1596/1916 dated 29th February 1916 submitting application for this scholarship last year Miss Philipsz was wrongly stated ~~xx~~ to have been ---

Statement of parentage and family circumstances.

My father Dr.G.L.Philips was a Civil Assistant Surgeon in Government service for 23 years on Rs.130 a month when he resigned owing to ill-health and other domestic circumstances and devoted himself to private practice, his income ranging from Rs.250 to Rs.350 a month. He was entertained again in Government service from December 1914, to August 1916 as a temporary measure after which he resumed his practice.

I lost my mother in April 1912. We are eight children four boys and four girls. Of these my eldest brother and sister are married: one brother is a clerk in a Railway Stores office at Basrah, another is in the first year, Military Assistant Surgeon class of the Madras Medical College and the youngest is at school. My two younger sisters are also at school, and since August 1916, I have been appointed Additional Professor, Madras College for Women, Mylapore (Temporary).

Father and mother are both Anglo-Indians.
