8	What steps have been taken to procure the services of a passed candidate and with what result?
9	Recommendation of the head of the department.	... Mr. Inglis was first enlisted as a Sergeant in 1908. Subsequently he was permitted to undergo training as a Sub Inspector in the Vellore School. He passed the Vellore School examination and served as Sub Inspr. for a time. At his own request and as he did not pass the third class Vernacular test he was reverted as Sergeant in 1913. He bears an excellent character and is reported to have done well both as a Sergeant and a Sub Inspector. He wants to qualify himself for the post of a Circle Inspector to increase his chances of promotion. I recommend his request as there are few European Inspectors in charge of circles.
10	Remarks.	The application is made in the interests of public service.
