Lo 46 B, from the Dy. Regt, Appellate Side, High Court,

R.O.C. 990/17, dt the 11th April 1917.

Subject:- Permission to appear for the terminal judicial test, lower grades.

What are the examination qualifications from which the exemption is desired?

- (2) What reasons are urged by the Applicant?
- (3) The High Court does not recommend.
- (4) Precedent?

R. K. 24.4.17.

The examination qualification from which the exemption is desired is that specified in note (2) to art. 4 of the Special Test Notice. In the present case the applicant is only a Matriculate and cannot therefore apply for the terminal judicial test, lower, without special permission granted by Govt.

(2) No specific reasons are urged by the applicant in support of his request. It may however be presumed Sarkishtadars or head clerks of Dist.

③. Since 1911 the Honble. the Judges of the High Court have not been in the habit of expressing any opinion on applications for exemption. Because the Govt. ~~has~~ declined ~~to~~ on one occasion to sanction an exemption recommended by them. The Honble. the Judges therefore took umbrage and stated that they would ^{express} themselves ^{no}

unless asked by the Govt. to do so in any particular case.

matters like these. vide the Honble.

2 Attention is also directed to para 3 of the reference in G.O. No. 969 Home - Ed. II, dt. 13th Sep. 1916 in which the Govt. have ^{called for} ~~been~~ ^{the view} ~~been~~ of heads of depts. on the suggestion that every Govt. servant possessing the minimum general educational qualification (the possession of a completed secondary school-leaving certificate) should ipso facto be entitled to appear for special tests of the alternative suggestion that collectors and officers of similar standing should be empowered to grant exemptions in cases where they considered them to be justified.

^{unqualified candidates}
The case of permission to appear for special test examinations to enable them to qualify themselves for promotions in deserving cases is distinguished from ~~cases~~ those in which exemption from general educational qualifications is sought. The recent policy is to be more free in granting the former permission.
