Sir,

In submitting herewith the application of K.N.Kuppuswami Mudali, 4th clerk of this Court for exemption under examination rules to hold posts carrying up to Rs. 35/-, I have the honour to state that he is a man of exceptional abilities and character deserving all encouragement. His knowledge of English is, I can say, more than what an ordinary Secondary School Leaving Certificate holder possesses. He has been doing the most important work that of Execution for the last 8 years giving uniform satisfaction to all the officers under whom he served including the inspecting officers. He knows every branch of work thoroughly and is really an acquisition to the office.

I have great pleasure in recommending him for the exemption sought for.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

May it please your Excellency,

Your Excellency's humble petitioner begs leave to submit the following petition for your Excellency's kind consideration and favourable orders:—

This petitioner is a permanent clerk on Rs. 20 in the District Munsif's Court of Chittoor, his total service being ~~nearly~~ 14 years. He has studied up to Matriculation standard.

He belongs to Vellala caste, a backward community with very poor representation in Public Service.

As this petitioner is not qualified under the Examination Rules to hold posts carrying a salary of above Rs. 20 he has been kept on in the same pay for over 7 years in spite of his thorough acquaintance with all branches of work and the consequent satisfaction he has been uniformly giving to his superiors in the discharge of his duties.

His prospects in life are cut-short owing to the educational bar. As Clerks of the Revenue Department are freely granted exemptions, the petitioner craves leave to approach Your Excellency to consider his case as a fit and proper one to enjoy similar and equal privileges with those of his brethren in the Revenue Department and prays that the Government may be pleased to exempt him permanently from Examination Rules to enable him to rise up to posts carrying Rs. 35 per mensem.

The petitioner begs to remain,
Your Excellency's most obedient and humble servant,

COPIES OF TESTIMONIALS.

The bearer Kooppusami Mudaliar was an Amin under me during the period of nearly 3 years when I presided over the Ranipet District Munsif's Court. He belongs to a respectable family and is a well behaved young man. He is well conversant with the clerical work in a Munsif's Court and unlike other Amins he always took pleasure in utilising his leisure hours in working in the office and giving relief to the over worked clerks and process writers. So far as I knew, he is a trustworthy and honest public servant.

Sir,

With reference to your letter No. 548 dated 27—9—1909, I have the honor to state that of the several clerks in this Court only the acting 7th clerk K. N. Kuppasami Mudali is willing to go to Chittoor. He is a permanent Amin 2nd Grade, but has been acting as clerk in this Court for a long time. He has been incharge of all branches of work and knows Tamil and Telugu. I can safely recommend him for promotion to any Court as besides being able to manage any branch of work in a Munsif's Court, he is a willing worker and an honest and reliable man.

District Munsif,
 now District Munsif, Tiruvallur.

K. N. Kuppasami Mudaliar has been doing Execution work under me for three years. He is intelligent, careful and quick. He is one of the best clerks in the office and deserves encouragement. I hope to see him rise in service, as he is trustworthy and fit for onerous work.

The recommendation of the Dt. Munsif, Chittoor, for the permanent exemption of the clerk from the examination rules is not based on any public grounds, except that the clerk is in his opinion an acquisition to the office. The clerk seems to make out in his memorial at p. 4 C.F. that he deserves special encouragement as he belongs to the Vellala caste, "a backward community with very poor representation in public service"; but this has not been endorsed by the Dt. Munsif or by the Dt. Judge. No strong case has been made out out for the exemption.
