No. 1963 A. from the D.P.D., no 3262 J. 27.4.17

Subject. Application of Mrs. E.M. Green for postage in April 1915 J.

Six Five of the J.E.S. officers are now absent from this Presidency. Two of them, Messrs Mayhew and Boraithearts are now serving under the Central Reserve Const. and the Govt. of India respectively. Another (Mr. W.E. Smith) is on military duty. The other two, Messrs Hodges and Melville are on leave. The applications of these other officers - Messrs Dineen, Cudrey and Greave for leave have already been registered. It may therefore be difficult to grant Mrs. Green leave from April next.

There appears however to be no harm in registering the leave will be applied for only ~~if the application is not registered~~ if it is not registered. Messrs Hodges and Melville would have returned by that time.

2. A draft ~~and~~ is submitted for approval
