To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
HOME (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir,

In G.O.No.244 Educational, Mis., dated 6th March 1916, Government approved the proposal to appoint a peripatetic teacher of music for the European schools in Madras and for the Presidency Training school for Mistresses, Egmore, on a consolidated salary of Rs.180/- per mensem temporarily for a period of one year from the 1st March 1916. Miss Iles, whom I appointed to the post entered on her duties in the forenoon of 18th April 1916. I have now the honour to submit copies of her letter in which she details the work done by her during 1916

(Vide p. 132 of the Ck. for 1917. 18 for the provision at Rs.180 a month)

1916-1917 and expresses her willingness to serve in the same capacity for another year on condition that her salary is increased from Rs.180/- to Rs.240/- per mensem, the increase being, she says, to meet her conveyance charges. The Inspector of European and Training schools recommends the continuance of the post and the retention of Miss Iles' services for another year. It seems proper that Government should help her to get about and visit schools but not that they should provide the whole cost of a carriage. An increase of Rs.20/- per mensem seems reasonable, and I beg accordingly to recommend that her salary may be increased from Rs.180/- to Rs.200/- per mensem with effect from 1st March 1917 and that her retention in service for another year from that date may be sanctioned. The necessary re-appropriation statement to meet the excess cost will be submitted on receipt of orders of Government on this letter.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

N. A. Arivu

for Director of Public Instruction.

Ref:- Letter dated 13-3-1917 from Miss Iles, Peripatetic Music Mistress.

Report of work for the year 1916-1917.

Miss Iles found the work of Class-singing in most schools being taught on wrong lines. Very little method was shown on the part of the teachers, and in many cases the students showed a great lack of interest. She has tried to establish the system of reading music from the Written sign, and she is glad to say in many of the schools this is being adopted with the result that interest is being shown by the members of the classes, and valuable knowledge gained.

Naturally progress is slow, great results cannot be shown at once, but in time, with patience and encouragement from Principals and Inspectors. She sees no reason why class singing in the European schools cannot be brought to a very high standard of proficiency. Good training in class-singing is a valuable asset to any school, and of inestimable value to each individual and the community at large.

Miss Iles would like as much encouragement given to this branch of work as was possible. Class-singing is very difficult, and required great patience, tact and hard work on the part of the teacher."

Ref:-Letter dated 16-2-1917 from Miss Iles, Peripatetic teacher of Music, to the Inspector of European and Training schools, Madras.

"I have the honour to acknowledge receipt of your letter Cur.No.96 E of 1917 dated 12th instant, and in reply, beg to state that I am willing to remain in Government service for a further period of one year as a "Part time" Teacher, on condition that the present salary is increased from Rs.180/- to Rs.240/- per mensem. I at present am visiting the Training school weekly the Centre on Mondays and Thursdays and all the schools in rotation class singing in all its branches is very trying work, and I find a suitable conveyance a very imperative need. Under the present condition I am unable to afford this means of transit, and am therefore compelled to request an increase of salary. Under these circumstances I trust Government will find it possible to grant my request."

SUBJECT Retention for another year of the post of peripatetic teacher of music.

Submitted that the retention of the post of the peripatetic teacher of music for another year from the 1st March 1917 may be sanctioned.

2. As regards the proposal to raise the pay of the post from Rs 180 to Rs 200 a month, the increase being required to meet the teacher's conveyance charges, attention is solicited to the Director's letter on pages 2+3 of G.O. No. 244.

(J) Eddy the 6. 3. 16 from which it will be seen that in fixing her pay at Rs 180 account was taken of the Conveyance charge of Rs 50 and her pay of Rs 30 at the Presidency Training School for mistresses at Egmore. No strong reasons are now urged for an increase of her salary. Submitted that the proposal may be negatived.

3. A draft order is submitted for approval. It need not be sent to Financial. If, however, it is decided to increase the salary, the acceptance of Financial will have to be obtained.

18-4-17. Under the terms of her appointment Miss He is to "lecture

"once a week at the Centre, visit three "schools a week, & give two 40 minutes
"lessons at each," besides her visit to the Nest Training School for mistresses. In her letter to the Inspector she says that she visits the Centre twice a week & other schools in rotation. This does not give any correct idea as to whether her visiting duties have increased more than she ~~at~~ originally stipulated for. It is only on that point that any increase in remuneration can ~~be~~ apparently be justified. The D.P.I. may perhaps be asked to note on this point, no.

There does not seem to be much to come, especially in this time of financial stringency for ^{the remuneration} ~~the~~ ^{the} that on the previous occasion the D.P.I. did not recommend him this request for a conveyance allowance. The suggestion is not likely to find acceptance in Fin^l Dept unless strongly supported.

He made it a condition of continuing her work that her salary must be increased to Rs 240 to meet her conveyance charges. My suggestion was to meet her part way. If she refuses to do so with the work up to Rs 150 I don't see how we are to get anyone else competent to do it. I will ascertain whether she is willing to go on with Rs 150 and address her again.

In the circumstances reported in the letter read above sanction may be accorded to the retention of the post for another year. Para. 2 of the draft order already submitted may be omitted. The draft order as thus altered is submitted for approval. It need not go to Finance as there is budget provision for the old rate of remuneration.
