To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Through H O M E (Education) Department. the Accountant-General, Madras. Ootacamund.

Sir,

In G.O.No. 39, Home (Education) dated 8th January 1917 the Government declined to sanction grain compensation allowance to the typewriting clerk of my office and my attention was drawn to para 2 of G.O. No. 513 Public, dated 28th April 1914, laying down that the employees in my office will cease to be eligible for grain compensation allowance on account of the introduction of the new scale of pay to the peons and attender.

I beg to submit that in the first place the typewriting clerk was only entertained in my office on the 23rd September 1916 on Rs. 25-1-30 and as such he cannot be included among

It is exactly because of that that he is eligible for such
