Through The REGISTRAR,
Sir, High Court, Madras.

Sir,

I have the honour to forward herewith for -- favourable consideration copy of an application addressed to me by K. Venkataramayya, Deputy Nazir on Rs. 35/- of the Principal District Munsif's Court, Narasapur, praying that he may be exempted from passing the required Special Tests Examinations to hold a Central Nazir's place.

2) The Principal District Munsif of Narasapur under whom the applicant has been working recommends him very -- strongly (copy of his letter enclosed) and I entirely agree with him that he is a fit person to be granted the exemption applied for by him.

3) I would not venture to trouble Government or the High Court on this matter were I not personally satisfied that the applicant fully deserves the concession he prays for. I have recently inspected the Court at Narasapur and was much impressed with his capabilities as a Nazir. I strongly advocate his claim and venture to express the respectful hope that his request may meet with favourable consideration.

I have the honour to be,

Copy of letter Dis.No. 176, dated 20th April 17, from the Principal District Munsif of Narasapur to the District Judge of Kistna.

" In submitting herewith an application from my Deputy Nazir for exemption from examination rules to enable him to hold a Central Nazir's place in a District or Subordinate Judge's Court, I have the honour to state that I support it with my strong recommendation. He has put in a total service of a well nigh 30 years in the department, with experience of about a dozen years as Deputy Nazir. He belongs to a very respectable family well known in these parts and he bears a thoroughly good character so far as my experience of him goes, besides possessing tact, patience and firmness in an abundant degree which are, needless to say, the essential qualities required for managing a Process Service Establishment consisting, as it generally does, of a number of turbulent elements. The District Munsifs of Tanuku under whom he happened to serve immediately before his posting to this Court, one of whom has since become a Subordinate Judge, spoke very highly about his work and character and I unhesitatingly agree with their opinions; while I am sure that, judging from the reference to the comparative statements submitted to it from the several Naziraths, the District Court itself cannot be altogether unaware of the nature of his work and character and capacity. The duties appertaining to the posts of Deputy Nazir and Central Nazir are obviously identical and the long and varied experience he has gained in several capacities in the Department in general and as a Deputy Nazir in particular, may, in my opinion, be taken as a set off against the want of educational qualification which alone acts as a bar now for his being appointed as a Central Nazir's place. It is well known that in the Judicial Department promotions are few and far between and at least once in a way, tried and trustworthy servants may be shown some encouragement by concessions like the one now sought and instances where similar concessions have been shown are in fact not unknown in the department. I consequently consider the applicant's case to be quite a fit and proper one richly deserving such a concession."

The Principal District Munsif, Narasapur.

Narasapur.

Most Honoured Sir,

I humbly beg to submit that I am at present the Deputy Nazir of the Principal District Munsif's Court, Narasapur. I have put in 28 years total service having entered the Government service as a clerk in a Munsif's Court so long ago as in 1889. During this period, I worked in several courts in the old Godavari and Kistna districts and in -- various capacities in the Ministerial branches. I further officiated as Head Clerk occasionally and had been a Deputy Nazir during the years 1900 to 1904 when I was sent out as a clerk on promotion. In whatever capacity I served, I always managed to give satisfaction and with the approbation of my superiors. I have been holding my present post on Rs. 35/- ^{since June 1914} before which period I had held a similar post on Rs. 30/- in the District Munsif's Court, Tanuku. I have thus had experience of Nazir's place and duties for about 11 years (1900 to 1904 and 1911 to 17) and copies of the testimonials (herein enclosed) given me by Messrs. G.G. Somayajulu, now a Sub Judge and K.K. Swamy, District Munsif the two -- District Munsifs under whom I happened to serve at Tanuku, speak about the nature and character of the work I turned out before them. As for my work in this Court, it has been favourably reviewed by the District Court in the two successive inspections held by it during last year and this year. This year the District Judge was even pleased to express -- satisfaction personally at his recent inspection after having seen and learnt of my work from the Sheristadar and the District Munsif. I belong to a respectable family, my father having been a Tahsildar and my brother having died recently as a Deputy Collector after having served as Huzur Sheristadar in the Godavari District. To my great misfortune I have been unable to pass the Tests required for higher posts. I -- however understand that the High Court is nevertheless pleased to grant exemption from time to time for tried and trustworthy officials in -- in circumstances similar to mine from passing the required tests, thereby enabling them to hold higher posts even without them. -- There is a strong talk in these parts that a permanent Sub Court will be located here shortly and even irrespective of it there are a number of Sub Courts in this district each having a Central Nazir and from my experience of the Nazir's duties as above said I humbly beg to submit I am qualified to hold a Central Nazir's post which ^{however,} could not be held by me at present for want of required tests. In the aforesaid circumstances and in view of the long service I have put in, in the Department, I humbly pray -- your gracious honour to be pleased to take my case specially into your favourable consideration and recommend me to the High Court for exemption from the necessary examinations as so as to enable me to hold a Central Nazir's place in Sub Court in the District.

For which act of kindness I shall every pray for your honour's long life and prosperity.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Mr. K. Venkatramayya was the Deputy Nazir of the Tanuku District Munsif's Court for over two years during the period I presided over that Court. He impressed me as an Officer of great tact and ability. He has managed the turbulent elements of the Process Service Establishment without any hitch. He is a man of wide and varied experience and I always have a regard for him. He certainly deserves to fill a more important place in the Judicial service.

This is to certify that Kokkonda Venkatramayya worked as Deputy Nazir in the Tanuku District Munsif's Court when I presided over it in 1911 and 1912 and that I then found him a capable and energetic Officer. In my opinion he deserves promotion as -- Central Nazir.

NOTES.

le. 245/2, from the High Court, P.O. No. 1807/17, dt 11.5.17

Subject:- Exemption from the examination

The applicant,

M. Venkataswamy, is stated to have put in nearly thirty years of service and apparently he is too old to pass the tests (the Judicial Test and the Translation Test, lower grade) from which exemption is ^{now} sought. ~~It is also a matter for consideration whether there will be any public advantage in employing him as a Judicial Magistrate at this advanced age. In this view the exemption cannot be said to be in the interests of the public.~~ Service. Attention is in this connection solicited to the case disposed of in P.O. No. 1062 Eds., dt the 6th Oct. 1916 wherein an almost similar application for exemption from the Judicial Test, lower grade, was rejected [vide also Sir Harold Stuart's note on p. 7 of the P.O.]
