Resolution

Reference.

In their order, No. 732 Educational dated 4th September 1895, Government exempted M. Abdul Khadir, clerk in the Taluk Office, Udipi, South Kanara district, from the examination rules with a view to his admission into superior service on Rs. 15/- per mensem and upwards.
Government at the same time remarked that the exemption did not involve permission to appear for the special tests

tests and in their order No. 775 Educational dated 17th November 1908 refused him permission to appear for the tests. In 1910 and again in 1915, the Collector recommended to the Board that the candidate might be exempted from the provisions of Board's Standing Order No. 140 (2) so that he might hold posts carrying a pay exceeding Rs.35, but the Board declined to grant the exemption. The present Collector (Mr. Vibert) requests a re-consideration of the order on the ground that the clerk has acted on Rs.40/- on more than one occasion, that his work has been uniformly good and that he is the only Muhammadan who holds a post carrying a salary of over Rs.30/- in the Revenue Department in the District.

2. Training as Revenue Inspector is so valuable that the Board is not prepared to exempt the clerk from it. In view, however, of the fact that under the existing rules exemption from examinations rules carries with it permission to appear for the Special tests and the clerk has been exempted from examination rules, the Board sees no objection to his being permitted to appear for the Special tests. If he passes the tests he will be qualified for appointment as Revenue Inspector and the existing impediment to his rising to posts carrying a salary of over Rs.35/- will disappear. The Board requests that Government will be pleased to permit Abdul Khadir to appear for the special tests that are open to School Final Candidates.

salary

REVENUE DEPARTMENT.

C. No. 937-c, From the Ord. of the D. R. Dept., No. 1513-17-1, Dated 11-5-1917.

To Under Secretary.

At the instance of the Coll^r of South Kanara, the Board of Revenue requests a reconsideration of the orders of Govt. in G.O. No. 775. Est.
717-11-08 regarding grant of permission to one Abdul Khadir, a clerk in the South Kanara Coll^r's office, to appear for the special tests that are open to School Trial Candidates. Attention is in this connection invited to the Rev. notes on p. 15 of G.O. No. 775 Est. 717-11-08 in which this Dept. supported the recommendation of the then Collector of South Kanara (Mr.
Ajiz-ad-din) that the Clerk may be allowed to appear for the special tests. But the Govt. were not prepared to consider it favourably (vide Est. Dept. notes up to G.O. No. 775. Est. 7 17-11-08) and orders were accordingly issued. It is for consideration whether, in view of the special circumstances now urged by the Coll^r and recommended by the new Board of Rev. this Dept. will ~~support~~ ^{re-consider} again the ~~Board~~ ^{Board}, this Dept. will ~~repeat~~ ^{re-consider} the ~~previous~~ recommendation in favour of the clerk.
It is submitted that the file may be

The memorial runs to have been refused on the ground that he had no educational qualifications. That was in 1908. Since then his work has been uniformly good.
Also he is a Muhammadan.
