LONDON, S.W. 1.

19th April, 1917.

Dear Sir,

For several years we have received seventeen copies annually of Volume I of the Report on Public Instruction in the Madras Presidency (including two advance copies), but the second Volume (Statistics) has never been sent. Recently we have received from your Government a few copies of the 1915-16 Report, for distribution to certain named addresses, which are complete as regards Volume II.

Unless there is any reason against such a course, it would be preferable that all the copies regularly sent here, should be complete in the two Volumes.

Yours faithfully.,

William Foster

Registrar and Superintendent of Records.

The Chief Secretary to Government, Madras.
