NOTES.

From the Secretary to the Govt. United Provinces, No. 1144
dated the 1st May 1917.

(Publications of the United Provinces.)

I am directed to say that in view of the orders of the Govt. of India enjoining economy in the use of stationery in Government offices the Local Government is considering the question of curtailing the distribution lists of the reports which are at present printed under its orders. I am accordingly to forward an extract from the list showing the copies at present supplied to the Government of Madras and to inquire whether any, and if so, what reduction is possible in them.

For the A.S.

Please see the list ~~at page 1-c-f~~. The publications referred to therein relate to the following depts:

Home (Education) Item. 1

Home (Judicial) 15

Revenue Items 2-14 and 16

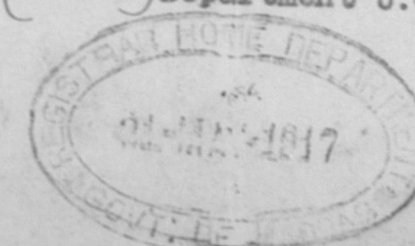

Submitted that a copy of these notes and a copy of the letter with relevant extracts from the list ~~at page 1-c-f~~ may be forwarded to the departments concerned and they may be requested to intimate their requirements direct to the Govt. of United Provinces. After issue of the U.O. note these papers may be recorded.
