Sir,

I have the honour to request the sanction of Government to the new training college for teachers to be opened at Rajahmundry in July next being designated "The Telugu Districts Training College". It will be seen from my letter R.C.No.7581/14 dated 28-1-15 disposed of in G.O. No.496 Educational dated 7-5-15 that the institution is -- intended to meet the requirements of the Telugu teachers and the name I suggest will obviate any possibility of confusion between the new college, the Teachers' College and

Designation of the new training
College at Rajahmundry

For orders whether the new name should be approved. The other Training College is named 'The Teacher's College'; and there is no likelihood of any confusion arising by naming the new College "The Govt. Training College, Rajahmundry". The Arts Colleges at Rajahmundry & Kumbakonam are merely called "Govt. College, Rajahmundry" & "Govt. College, Kumbakonam" respectively. The designation, "Telugu Dist. Training College" ~~does~~ apparently follows, "the Ceded Dist. College, Anantapur".

But the latter name was specially given to the institution in view of the controversy that arose in connection with the location of the College. No such reasons exist in the present case.
