Most Honoured Sir,

In obedience to the G.O. No. Mia. 730, dated 9th March 1917, communicated to me, with reference to the Vizagapatam Collector's letter, R.C.No. 111 dated 29th January 1917, through the Proceedings of the Board of Revenue, Land Revenue, No. 971 Routine, dated 14th March 1917, I beg to submit that, if the Government regret that they are unable to create a special post of additional Deputy Tahsildar for me now, they may be pleased, for the present, to appoint me in the Revenue Department on a decent starting and accord me permission to appear for the necessary Special Test Examinations - Account, Revenue and Criminal - Higher grades - exempting me from the requisite educational qualification and thus give me facilities to qualify myself for the higher appointments, in order to be favoured with the Deputy Tahsildar's post, as soon as I pass the prescribed tests, for which I shall be ever grateful.

My Matriculation certificate and the other certificates and testimonials, nine in number, in originals, (to the effect that I completed the Intermediate course as well) are herewith attached for perusal and favour of return when done with.

I beg to remain,

Most honoured Sir,

Address.

S. Amiruddin Ahmad (Alig)
C/o Mahammad Fyzulla Khan Saheb,
Mokhasadar of Yarada,

Permission to appear for special tests.

C.No. from the Board of Revenue, L.R. Forests, Ref. No. 1875-17-1, dated 14-6-17.

To Under Secretary

The Board of Revenue submits an application from one S. Amir-ud-din Ahmed, praying

(1) that he may be given an appointment in the Revenue dept. on a decent starting, and

(2) that he may be exempted from the requisite educational qualifications so as to enable him to appear for the special tests necessary for a Dy. Tahsildar's post.

2. The applicant is the nephew and son-in-law of the Mokhasdar of Yerada in the Vizagapatam district, has passed the Matriculation examination and appears to have studied up to the Senior Intermediate. In January last he applied for the post of probationary deputy tahsildar. The application was strongly supported by the uncle and father in law. The Collr. thought that the applicant was capable and intelligent although his educational qualifications were slight. In expressing their inability to create a special post of additional deputy tahsildar, the Government said that they would be prepared to consider the question of exempting him from the age limit if he qualified himself by passing the prescribed examinations (-vide G.O. 730 Rev. d/9-3-17 and the H.M.'s note on page 3 of the notes in G.O.) Amir-ud-din Ahmed recently sought an interview with the Under Secretary and enquired, with reference to the above order, what qualifications were meant and what post in Government service he could get, if he were to qualify. (P. 11 of G.O. 730 Rev. d/9-3-17). He was referred to the pamphlet containing an abstract of the rules relating to Public Service-Wide O.M. on page 13 of the G.O.).

3. As regards Amir-ud-din's present request to be given ^{an} ~~the~~ appointment in the Revenue dept. the Collector states that there is no vacancy for him in the Revenue dept. The Board of Revenue on the other hand recommends that the Collr. may be informed that while the applicant cannot be appointed as a deputy tahsildar to start with, he may be given a trial in any other post which is within the gift of the Collr. It is submitted that the suggestion may be accepted.

4. As to the applicant's second request, the Board of Revenue recommends that he may be permitted to appear for Revenue Higher and Criminal Higher. For orders whether this recommendation will be supported in this dept. If so, the file may be transferred to the Home (Educational) for consideration of the proposal and issue orders. That Department may also be requested to add a paragraph to the order on this file in accordance with the Board's suggestion at A in paragraph 3 ^{supra}. This opportunity may perhaps be taken to give effect to the Secretary's suggestion in another connection, that, instead of specifying particular years in which the applicant should appear for the Special Tests, he may be given a specified number of chances to pass the Tests.

Home (E) Dep^{ts}

The Revenue Dep^{ts} suggests that instead of specifying two particular years in which the applicant should appear for the special tests, he may be given a specified no. of chances to pass the tests. There seems no objection to the acceptance of the suggestion. Usually candidates are allowed two chances to appear for the tests. The same number of chances may also be given in the present case.

2. With reference to the suggestion of the Rev Dep^{ts} at B on p. 2 ante, it is submitted that orders ~~as usual~~ ^{may} as usual issue in that Dep^{ts} in regard to the appointment of the applicant in the Collectorate. To add a para to that effect in the order which has to issue in Home (E) in regard to the grant of permission to appear for special tests, is against precedents and may lead to confusion and constant requisition from Rev for the S.O. If however the Revenue Dep^{ts}'s suggestion ~~is~~ is accepted the draft below is for approval.

If, as suggested by the 1st Def., para 2 of the draft order is removed, it will have to be replaced by another paragraph to the effect that orders will issue in the Rev. Def. on the applicant's request to be provided with an appointment on a decent starting. And then, on receipt of the Educational Exp., together with a copy of these notes, ^{on this point} another order will have to issue in this Def.. These formalities could be avoided if the draft order could issue in its present form.
