2. The Hand book of Hunza and Nagpur by G.W.V.
Leitner was published in 1892 in the January issue of the Asiatic Quarterly Review and as there is only one copy of it in this Department the Government of India regret that they are unable to spare it. As regards the Imperial Gazetteer it will be seen from the Home Department letter no. 658 dated the 19th March 1906 that 131 sets of this publication were placed at the disposal of the Government of Madras. The Government of

No. 294, dt/ the 25th April 1917.

Subject:- Re: certain publications asked for ^{from} the Govt. of India and library of Mr. Richards, J. L. S.

With reference to para 2 of Govt. of India's letter in the current file, attention is directed to the distribution list appended to G.O. No.

921 Rev, dt/ the 19th Sep. 1906. It will be seen herefrom that the 131 sets of the Imperial Gazetteer that were placed at the disposal of this Govt. were distributed in the manner shown in cols. 1 & 2 thereof and that the Chief Secretariat and the Rev.
Secretariat were the only two offices that got a fairly large number of copies of the work - (16 and 26 respectively).
It is for consideration whether the above two ^(Departments) ~~offices~~ may be consulted as to the feasibility of sparing one (^{for Mr. Richards}) set from the number supplied to them.
If so the current may be forwarded w/o to Mr. Richards.

Of the three sets of the Imperial Gazetteer series available in the library ^(made) one was placed in the additional members library under the orders of the Chief Secretary (Mr Butterworth) on 21.12.1915. Subd that the remaining two sets are necessary for the requirements of the library and the Home (Sd) Dept may be informed that it is not possible to spare one set of the Imperial Gazetteer for the use of Mr Richards from the Sectt Library.

I don't follow. What happened to the 16 sets supplied to the Chief Secyariat? Why do you say we have only three sets
