MADRAS GOVT

SIR,

I beg most respectfully to inform you that I have brought out a work entitled Hindu Fasts and Feasts, giving an account, as accurate and authoritative as possible, of the principal social festivals of the Hindus. The book is published by the Indian Press, Allahabad, and is priced at Re. 1 only. In the writing of some of the chapters I had the benefit of the learned collaboration of the Hon. Mr. J. G. Jennings, M. A., then Principal of the Muir Central College, Allahabad. Special care has been taken throughout that nothing contained in the book might give offence to members of any particular sect or denomination, the author's aim being only to present a picture of Hindu social life from the inside. I shall feel most grateful if you will kindly bestow your generous patronage on my humble work and order the purchase of copies for schools, colleges and public offices.

I have the honour to be,
SIR,
Your most obedient servant.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir,

With reference to Government Memorandum No. 276 B-2 dated 16th June 1917, I have the honour to report that on a similar application received direct from the author, he was informed on the 31st May 1917, i.e., prior to the date of his present application that the Director was unable to patronize his book. The grounds on which my decision was based were that there had been several treatises of the kind coming up for consideration and that it was thought unnecessary to swell the number of such publications especially as the customs and manners of the people in this Presidency differed widely from those of the people in Bengal, United Provinces, etc.

2. I return herewith the letter and the book received along with the Memorandum under reply.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient Servant,

One should have thought that for the very reason given in the last sentence of the D.P.'s letter, the purchase of these books should have been found necessary. As the D.P. ~~disposes~~ however thinks otherwise we may decline to sanction the purchase of any.

(The book with us already may be sent to the Commemorative Public Library)
