Public Service Notification

Granting enhanced powers to the Registrar of Co-operative Societies in regard to the employment of unpassed candidates in acting and sub. pro tem. vacancies and in temporary posts.

READ—the following paper:—

Letter—from M.R.Ry. Diwan Bahadur L. D. SWAMIKANNU PILLAI Avargal,
M.A., B.L., LL.B., Registrar of Co-operative Societies.
To—the Secretary to Government, Revenue Department.
Dated—Madras, the 28th May 1917.
No.—682 G. C.

In view of the difficulty experienced by me and by Assistant Registrars in getting passed candidates for temporary posts below Rs. 30, especially in the mufasal, I have the honour to request that Government may be pleased to permit me to appoint unpassed men in acting and sub. pro tem. vacancies and in temporary posts carrying Rs. 30 and below without limit of time.

I understand that similar powers have been delegated to the Director of Agriculture.

Order—No. 937, Home (Education), dated 16th July 1917.

The Government are pleased to empower the Registrar of Co-operative Societies to sanction the employment of unpassed candidates in acting and sub. pro tem. vacancies and in temporary posts without limit of time when the sanctioned pay of the appointment is not more than Rs. 30 per mensem, provided that bona fide efforts have been made without success to obtain passed candidates.

NOTES CONNECTED WITH G.O. No. 937, HOME (EDUCATION),
DATED 16TH JULY 1917

[SUBJECT.— Grant of enhanced powers to the Registrar of Co-operative Credit Societies in regard to the employment of candidates in acting and sub. pro tem. vacancies and in temporary posts.]

HOME (EDUCATION) DEPARTMENT.

From the Registrar of Co-operative Societies, Madras, No. 682, dated the 28th May 1917.

Under article 4 (13) of the Public Service Notification, the Registrar of Co-operative Societies may sanction the employment of unpassed candidates in acting and sub. pro tem. vacancies and in temporary posts in the department administered by him when the vacancy does not exceed twelve months in duration, and when the sanctioned pay of the appointment is not more than Rs. 30 per mensem, provided that bona fide efforts have been made without success to obtain passed candidates. The Registrar now requests that he may be empowered to appoint unpassed men in acting and sub. pro tem. vacancies and in temporary posts without limit of time when the pay of the appointment is not more than Rs. 30 per mensem, on the ground that it is found difficult to get passed candidates for temporary posts below Rs. 30 especially in the mufassal.

These powers will be modified if the present proposals are sanctioned.

R.R.—26-6-17.

The Registrar quotes as a precedent the grant of similar enhanced powers to the Director of Agriculture—vide G.O.

No. 475, Home (Education), dated the 14th April 1917.

2. Submitted that this department may sanction the proposal with the concurrence of the Revenue Department as this would bring the Registrar of Co-operative Societies almost in line with the heads of departments specified in article 4 (2) and (3) of the Public Service Notification.

3. Subject to orders a draft is submitted for approval. It may be sent to the Revenue Department for acceptance.

T.K.—22-6-17.

C. RAMANUJA ACHARIYAR—25-6-17.

I am just proposing that even for Rs. 20 posts we want "passed" men, so the proposal seems to be retrograde?

The Registrar has power to employ "unpassed men" for a year and this ought to suffice in Madras.

R. RAMACHANDRA RAO—26-6-17.

A draft order refusing the delegation of powers asked for is submitted for approval. If approved it may issue with the concurrence of the Revenue Department.

P[ENTLAND]-11-7-17.

The authority asked for by the Registrar is the same as has been granted to the Inspector-General of Registration, the Collectors of all districts and the Director of Agriculture, and is less than that granted to the Board of Revenue, the High Court, the Director of Public Instruction, the Surgeon-General, the Inspectors-General of Police and Prisons and the Presidency Port Officer. Under the existing scheme of exemptions, therefore, it would seem reasonable to grant the proposed authority to the Registrar.

Mr. Ramachandra Rao says that he is making certain proposals, the nature of which does not appear. If his proposals are accepted, the general scheme of exemption will possibly be revised, but in the meantime and until that is done, there hardly seems sufficient reason for treating the Registrar in an exceptional manner.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule 315 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencer concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right-hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
