To

His Excellency the Governor in Council, Port St. George,
Madras.

Through

The District Judge, South Malabar, Calicut.

Through

The Principal District Munsif, Calicut.

The humble memorial of C. R. Anantarama Ayyar, 4th clerk of the Principal District Munsif's Court at Calicut,

Most respectfully sheweth: -

That Your Excellency's humble memorialist is now a sub protea clerk in the Principal District Munsif's Court at Calicut, having put in a service of 4 years and 9 months in the Judicial Department. He has passed the marginally noted examinations.

That the memorialist wishes to better his prospects in the Judicial Department by passing also the Criminal Judicial Test, Lower Grade, but his present educational qualifications do not permit him to appear for that examination. However, he ventures to submit that he having passed the Civil Judicial Test in 1916, is ^{competent} ~~competent~~ enough to have the competency to understand the necessary law books prescribed for the Criminal Judicial Test. If the Government is pleased to accord the necessary sanction, he hopes to pass the examination and to better his prospects thereby.
