To

THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

MADRAS

Sir,

I have the honour to apply for three months' privilege leave, four months deputation leave, under G. O. No. 49 dated 30th January 1903 and two months furlough with effect from the 1st of April 1918 or ~~at~~ from the date of availing.

2. I have now put in twelve years' service and during that time I have not enjoyed any deputation leave. I consider it would be of distinct help to my work if I am permitted to study the organisation and the working of the London County Council Training Schools for Women and the Elementary schools including some of the schools which have introduced the Montessori system of teaching either in London or in the Counties.

I have the honour to be,

sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Inspectress of Girls' Schools,

Central Circle.

Submitted to Government and recommended, not because I recognize any claim to the "Enjoyment" of deputation leave but because I think that the investigations and studies ^{Miss Lynch} ~~my~~ proposes would be of use if conditions should admit of her going Home.

No. 2426 A. from the D.I., no 4310, of 9.7.17 ~~Subject~~ Application of Miss C.M. Lynne Inspector of girls' schools, for long leave from April 1918.

The posts of the second and third inspectors are now permanently vacant and Miss J.
 Patterson has been recommended for confirmation in one of them. Even if Miss Patterson is confirmed, two out of the three posts will be in charge of acting officers if Miss Lynne is to be granted leave from April next. There appears however, to be no objection to the registry of the application. The leave could be availed of only if candidates then existing should admit of Miss Lynne's going home - please see Director's endorsement on page 4 of app.

2. As for Miss Lynne's request to be placed on deputation during the leave to study the organization and working of the London County Council for women and the elementary schools, it is submitted that the consideration of the request may be reserved for the present and the Director requested to bring the matter up again early in December next. (For a precedent please see G.O. no 956, dated the 14th August 1916) Under the rules in G.O. no 49 Ed., dated the 30th
