ENCLOSURES

(1)

Despatch—from the Government of India, Finance Department (Pay, Allowances, etc).

To—His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

Dated—Delhi, the 17th March 1917.

No.—59.

We have the honour to forward for your consideration a copy of a letter from the Government of Madras, No. 1424, dated 31st December 1916, regarding a proposal to confirm Miss Jessie Patterson, first Assistant Inspectress, Madras, in her present officiating appointment in the Indian Educational Service, as third Inspectress of Girls' Schools in the Madras Presidency on a salary of Rs. 400—10—450 and to exempt her from the operation of article 63 of the Civil Service Regulations.

2. The facts of the case are fully explained in the local Government's letter. The rule in article 63, Civil Service Regulations, has not usually been enforced in the cases of Indians who have in recent years been appointed permanently to the Indian Educational Service, and in view of these precedents and of the fact that Miss Patterson, being on the verge of retirement, would lose in emoluments if the rule is not waived in her favour, we recommend the proposal.

Despatch—from His Majesty's Secretary of State for India.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE SECRETARIAT.

(a) If a paper is marked to be printed urgently, the Superintendent of the section concerned should sign the Press slip. The Superintendent should exercise a careful discretion in the matter.

(b) Each letter, memorandum, or order, or set of orders, in the file of correspondence should be headed in succession with the Roman numeral I, II, III, etc., the number being written in red ink or blue chalk above the item. The particular papers to be printed in the special issue-copies should be indicated by the Roman numeral (I, II, etc.) by which that item has been headed in the correspondence file. All matter, including marginal remarks or references, to be printed should be written in ink and matter which should not be printed should be encircled. Initials and signatures that are not quite legible should be re-written distinctly.

(b) For rules regarding printing of notes, see rule §15 of the office Manual.

(c) The number of copies and the details of distribution should be filled in by the Superintendent or Referencee concerned.

(d) In the absence of special instructions to the Press to keep matter standing for a specified period, ordinary papers of 8 pages and under will be kept standing for one week, and larger papers for two weeks only. The type of notes and of all confidential papers is distributed immediately after striking.

(e) This slip, properly and completely filled in, should accompany every paper sent to Press; it will be returned by the Press when proofs are furnished; it should be sent to the Press when a call is made for revised proofs or when a corrected proof is sent for striking. When finally returned by Press it should be filed with the original order or letter.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR THE PRESS.

(a) If, in the opinion of the Superintendent of the Press, a paper has been marked urgent unnecessarily, he should send the Press slip to the Registrar with a remark to that effect.

(b) Unless a note to the contrary is made against the matter, pencil entries should not be printed. The Superintendent of the Press may bring to the notice of the Registrar any instance of incomplete or careless editing.

(c) Signature copies of letters to the Secretary of State or to the Government of India should be printed on hand-made paper.

(d) This slip should be returned by the Press to the Secretariat when proofs are furnished; it will be sent back to the Press when proofs are returned corrected and should be finally returned to the Secretariat when struck-off copies are supplied.

(e) The names of the Secretary and Members should be printed in full when they occur on the right hand side, only the first time when they appear on the left side, the initials alone being printed later.
