Under Secy's note on the current.

Please find out why the order is so worded as to confine Hereford to 30/.

Intd A. H. A. T. 9-7-17.

To Under Secy.

The original of G.P. No 873 Home (Educational) of 29-6-17 has been obtained and is put up flagged A. In this Dept note, the Home (Educational) Dept was asked to exempt W. G. Hereford from the provisions of article 1 of the Public Service Notification for employment as a clerk in the lower division in the Sectt. The minimum pay of a clerk in the lower division in the Rev: Sectt is Rs 30 and the maximum pay is Rs 60. The Home (Educational) Dept however has restricted the exemption to a salary of Rs 30 p.m. There is nothing in the notes to the G.P. to show why the exemption was restricted to Rs 30.

2. For the circumstances in which W. G. Hereford was taken into this Dept, reference is solicited to the Hon'ble Mr Davidson's note at p. 5 of C.O. No 4494-3-15. The H. M. suggested the appointment of an Eurasian as a telephone clerk.

The former proposal was for a permanent post on Rs 30. Secy 27/7/17

Copy K: C.

In November 1916, W. S. Hereford was put on other work as Despatcher. The Hon'ble Member directed that he should be sent back to the tele - Vide telephone in G.O. N 2203, 18-11-16.

3 W. S. Hereford is proposed to be confirmed on Rs 30 p.m. from 1st May last in a permanent vacancy. ~~Mr. Todd~~ The Under Secy (Mr Todd) has ~~already~~ ordered that he should act on Rs 30 in a six weeks' vacancy. According to the Home (Educ) Dept order, W. S. Hereford cannot draw more than Rs 30. It is submitted that it would be hard to keep him on on Rs 30 for ever. He attends to telephone and circulation work. As a clerk in the lower division is required for this work and as Hereford gets on with it without any complaint, it is submitted that the Home (Educ) Dept may be requested to reconsider their decision and to exempt him from the provisions of article 1 of the Public Service Rules for appointment in the lower division in the Revenue Secretariat.

To Deputy Secretary

The enquiry on page 1 arose out of a complaint made to me by H.M. of the difficulty ~~he~~ found in making himself understood by the telephone clerk. This, I believe, to be due partly to the lack of facility which most Indians show to adapt themselves to telephone conversation partly to the nervousness of a clerical underling who finds himself suddenly speaking to an Hon'ble Member and partly to changes in the personnel of the telephone clerk.

2. In this case the clerk had only been at the work a few weeks and was only a typist.

3. The Hon'ble Member suggested a Eurasian telephone clerk and I have spoken about it to Hereford, the Eurasian Superintendent of the departmental exchange in the Secretariat who has had some 19 years experience of the telephone and is the easiest person I know to carry on a telephone conversation. He suggested the employment of his own son and brought the boy to me. I think he might do, with his father's training, and should be obliged if D.S. could arrange for his trial on probation.
