No. 692

Station Madras, Dated the 18th December 191 7

From (Name) A. H. Longhurst, Esq.,

(Designation) Superintendent, Archaeological Survey
Southern Circle, Madras.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

HOME (EDUCATION) Department.

Sir, (Through) The Collector of Anantapur District.

I have the honour to state that the Madhavaraya Temple at Gorantla, Hindupur Taluk Anantapur District is a valuable monument historically and architecturally and worth preserving at Government expense. The temple was reported to be ownerless and was repaired at Government expense in the past. The villagers now propose to resume worship and in order to avoid any trouble in the future I would request that Government may be pleased to declare the monument as "Protected" within the meaning of the Ancient Monuments Preservation Act VII of 1904 and appoint the Collector as guardian of the temple in question.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,
A. H. Longhurst
Superintendent.

Re. 1695/12, from the Supdt., Dist. Secy,
No. 692, d/ 13. 12. 17

Subject: Preservation of the Maddhacharjani temple at Gokulda, Mandla Dist.

The monument in question is apparently the one described as "Maddhacharjani temple" in the list of ancient monuments selected for conservation - Vide item 88 on p. 3 at Slip (N). The temple is stated to be 'private' property.
The Supdt. now says that it was reported to be overgrown and was accordingly reported at Gokulda officers in the past. Though this point does not materially affect the question of leaving the monument under the Ancient Monuments Preservation Act, yet it is desirable to draw up the point by bringing the fact to the notice of the Dist. Secy. Should it be found that the temple is overgrown it may be deemed to be "Poor Property" in which case it is unnecessary to appoint the collector as guardian - vide the office note.

① The monument
Slip (N) refers to Mr. Doughty -
4: T. M. ①

in the case disposed of in P. B. No. 1010 P. B. No. 24th May 1916.

2. A draft order approving Mr. Longhurst's proposal is subd.
