From

Simla, the 6th December 1917

To

The Hon'ble Sir E.D. MacLagan, K.C.I.E., C.S.I.,
Secretary to the Government of India.

The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

I am directed to reply to your letter no. 1241, dated the 28th September 1917, in which the Government of Madras recommend the grant of the following concessions to Dr. F. Marsden, Dyeing Expert, Madras:-

- (i) exemption from the provisions of Article 478(a) of the Civil Service Regulations ;
- (ii) a personal allowance of Rs. 100 a month pending permanent revision of the pay of the post of Dyeing Expert.

2. As regards (i), I am to point out that orders abolishing the rule in Article 478(a) of the Civil Service Regulations were communicated to the Government of Madras with the Government of India, Finance Department, endorsement no. 893-C.S.R., dated the 21st September 1917.

3. As regards (ii), the Government of India observe that the local Government did not recommend any increase of remuneration for Dr. Marsden when the question of the permanent retention of his services as Dyeing Expert was under consideration in 1915-16, and they are disposed to think that the circumstances of the case are not such as to justify so early a re-opening of the question. They are therefore of opinion that the consideration of the question of enhancing Dr. Marsden's emoluments should be held over for the present.

I have the honour to be,
Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

MacLagan

Secretary to the Government of India.
