Sir,

In returning the paper referred to me for remarks with Memorandum of Home (Education) Department No. 3143 A-1 dated 25th October 1917, I have the honour to observe that Sessional Schools are intended to ^{serve} ~~secure~~ a more or less temporary purpose and that it is not therefore usual to regard them as permanent institutions and that I think it would be better to continue the School at G. Udayagiri
