The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education) Department,

"Stone House Hill," Ootacamund.

Sir,

With reference to G.O. No. 442 Home (Education) dated 4th April 1917, I have the honour to state that the annual subscription of the Indian Ladies' Magazine is Rs 4/- and not Rs 2/- as stated in the above order. In this connection I beg to point out that the subscription of the magazine has since its commencement been Rs 4/- and it was only during the years 1915 and 1916 that the subscription was temporarily reduced to Rs 2-8-0 and 2/- as the magazine owing to the circumstances had to be reduced to a quarterly one. But since the beginning of this year it has again become a monthly journal and consequently the subscription was raised to its original rate namely Rs 4/-. The Accountant-General, Madras, has been paying at this rate for all the magazines subscribed by the Government Institutions and Officers mentioned in the appended list since the commencement of the magazine except for the periods mentioned above. I further beg to state that it seems almost impossible to conduct a monthly and illustrated magazine such as the one I am editing at such a low rate as Rs 2/- when especially ^{when} the price of Stationery etc. ^{has gone up} on account of the present war. I therefore beg to request that the Government will be pleased to raise the

the subscription of the magazine to its original rate namely Rs 4/- and to issue orders accordingly.

I beg to remain,

Sir,

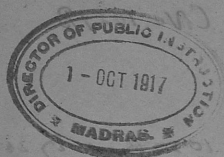

Your most obedient servant,

(Mrs) K. Sathianathan

(Designation) Director of Public Instruction.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

With reference to the endorsement of Government No. 1027 B-1, dated 25th September 1917, I have the honour to report that it has been ascertained from the Accountant-General, Madras, that during the years 1912 and 1913 subscription to the journal entitled "Indian Ladies' Magazine" was paid at the rate of Rs. 4/- per annum and that the rate was reduced to Rs. 2-8-0 during 1914 and 1915 and to Rs. 2-1-0 during 1916^{and} 1917. The Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Southern Circle, on whose report the statement contained in my letter to Government R.C.No. 480/17, dated 2nd March 1917 was based now reports that the subscription to the journal may again be raised to Rs. 4/-. I think the Editor's request which is reasonable may be complied with with effect from 1st January 1918.

2. I return herewith the enclosures received with the endorsement under reply.

I have the honour to be, subject - Requesting that the subscription for the journal may be paid at the rate of Rs 4 per annum.

[Issued as Cuth No 10273-1885-9-17]

From the S.P. I No Ro.C 8256/17, dated 5.12.17

For the Registrar

In G.O. No 442 Home (Eds) dated 4-4-1917, the Govt sanctioned the supply to the Govt. Secondary Girls' School at Cannanore of a copy of the Indian Ladies' Magazine at Rs 2 per annum. ^{Information as to} The rate of annual subscrip for the journal was furnished by the S.P. I p4 (a)

in his letter No Re. 430/17, dated 2.3.1917.
(p4 of the above G.O.)

The Editor of the journal now points out (pp 1-2 of) that the annual subscription is Rs 4 and not Rs 2, that it was temporarily reduced to Rs 2-8-0 + Rs 2 during the years 1915 & 1916 as the journal was published as a quarterly during those two years and that since the beginning of this year the subscription has been raised to Rs 4 per annum as it has again become a monthly. The Editor requests, therefore, that sanction may be accorded for the payment of the subscription at the rate of Rs 4 per annum.

2. The S.P. I states in his letter in his letter on pp 4-5 of that the subscription was paid at the rate of Rs 4 during the years 1912 & 1913 and that it was reduced to Rs 2-8-4 during the years 1914 & 1915 and to Rs 2-1- during the years 1916 & 1917 and he recommended that it may be raised to Rs 4 with effect from the 1st Jan 1918. But for the statement made by the D.P.D. in his letter No. R.C. 430/17 D.P.D. 2.3.17 on which para 2 of G.O. No. 442 Hums (E) D 4-4-17 was based, the Accountant General would apparently have paid the Editor at the increased rate of Rs 4 per annum for all the copies of the journal, from the beginning of this year. As it does not seem equitable that the Editor should lose the enhanced subscription for this year, the Director may be requested u.o. to state whether the enhanced rate may not be sanctioned with effect from the 1st Jan 1917 from which date the journal became a monthly
