THE DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION,

MADRAS.

SIR,

I have the honour to bring to your kind notice that M.R. Ry. V. Muthuswami Ayyar, my Personal Assistant, on his transfer from Aruppukottai to Madura removed his personal effects by road in a bullock cart from Aruppukottai to Madura direct, a distance of 29 miles by road instead of from Aruppukottai to Virudupatti, a distance of 11 miles by road and from Virudupatti to Madura, a distance of 27 miles by rail. This was because transportation by bullock-cart by road throughout was preferred by him to transportation partly by road and partly by rail with the attendant risks and difficulties. The actual cost of transit came to Rs. 5-8-0, but an amount of only Rs. 1-8-0 which is the goods fare of the maximum weight of luggage admissible for an officer of his rank and which does not exceed the actual cost of transit was drawn and disbursed to him. The samans were not weighed as they were carried in a bullock-cart, but it is said that it was a full cart load, and a full cart-load of household articles may weigh 10 maunds and even more.
