Fort Saint George, Madras

The humble petition of Lutfur-Rahman a maternal great-grand son of H. H. Nawab Asud-Dowlah Bhdy, the 1st Nawab of the Carnatic and a great-grand-son-in-law of H. H. Sir Zaherud. Dowlah Bhdy C. I. S. S. the 2nd Prince of West.

Most honoured Sir,

That in due obedience to the enclosed

(K) Order No. 8-13-1 dated 5th January 1915, the humble petitioner with every mark of respect begs permission to intrude upon your honour's precious time with the following few lines with the sanguine hope that they will meet with your honour's kind approval.

That on the strength of Encl. B the petitioner applied to the Collector of North Arcot through the Secretory to the Government Revenue Dept. for a Pet. Revenue Inspector's post and the benign Government transferred it to the said Collector vide Encl. C. But from the Encl. D it is evident that the petitioner is an unpassed Candidate that-

That on the face of the collector's endorsement dated 10th December 1914 and the present circumstances under which the heads of departments invite Applications from Candidates for Appointments in the Government Service, the petitioner can hardly venture to approach to the head of a department for a Suitable Appointment in the Government Service, as he is an unpassed Candidate.

That the petitioner already holds an exemption under C. O. No. 808 Edt dated 2nd December 1899, but it being only for the Salt & alkali department, the petitioner is unable to give its reference to other departments.
Had that exemption order been a general one, he would have easily secured any Suitable Appointment in the Government Service. The petitioner is also trying for a Suitable Appointment in the Salt & alkali & customs dept.
But his main object is to stick up to the Revenue dept.
& by the dint of his humble nature to present experience to work in that department & rise to high grade appointments.

That the petitioner begs to state that your honour may kindly enquire with the Secretary to the Government, Revenue department, on a kind reference, as to whether the officer commanding Trav Giff dept, Barua (Lieut. J. Genl. C. J. E.) has has written anything to that effect about the petitioner on his petition dated 11th August 1914 for a Probationary Deputy Tahildar post. If your honour may find anything favourable to the petitioner in that Officer's remarks, then it would humbly pray your honour to give a preferential treatment to his humble case in comparison of other unpassed Candidates who already hold a general exemption, as the petitioner is the only and first member both in the Barnah and Mrs. families who took unfield Barua at Barua, worked there & returned to his native place, Barua, with good name.

That the petitioner further begs to state that he is a respectable fallen down man with a large family depending upon his well-being & future and his son Aziz Rahman Sahab is becoming of age for education. A kind reference to the Paymaster General at Madras, will throw sufficient light upon the petitioner's statement.

That under the above circumstances the petitioner begs to throw himself upon your honour's clemency and prays that your esteemed honour in consideration of the circumstances of his pitiable case will be graciously pleased to grant him

him a general exemption from passing the opinion Of the Examination Panel to enable him to qualify himself for higher grade Appointments in the Government Service with the permission to apply for all the special test examination.

For his Act of special favour & patronage the petitioner & his family are duly bound, will ever pray for your honour's long life, health & ever increasing prosperity.

Shewing a favourable order

The humble petitioner to remain

Most. honoured Sir

Your honour most. Obedient servant.
