INDIA OFFICE,

WHITEHALL,

LONDON, S.W. 1.

3 December, 1917. ✓

Dear Sir,

With reference to Mr. Ferard's letter of the 12th September last, J. & P. 3891/17, and Public Despatch No. 7 of the 21st September last, I write to let you know that Miss Alice Sergeant sailed for Madras via the Cape on the 26th instant in the s.s. "Kenilworth Castle". It is impossible to give the exact date of her arrival at Madras but arrangements have been made for her to proceed thither by the first available steamer leaving Durban after the arrival of the "Kenilworth Castle".

In accordance with paragraph 2 of her agreement Miss Sergeant has been paid deputation allowance at the rate of £270 per annum from the 1st October up to and including the 26th November. Throughout this time she has been engaged in the study of Tamil and Telugu. Miss Sergeant also received on the 6th November an advance of one month's salary, viz. £30, and she was informed that this advance would be taken in reduction of the two months' advance of salary ordinarily admissible on arrival in India and would be recoverable in India in instalments of one-third of her salary.

Yours faithfully,

R. H. H.

Asst. Secretary,

Judicial & Public Department.

The Chief Secretary to the Government of Madras.
