Subject.

Confirmation of Miss Rebekah McLeod in the post of the Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses, Madras, and of Miss Corrie Gordon in the post of Lecturer in Kindergarten, Teachers' College, Saidapet.

The Secretary of State has sanctioned the confirmation of Miss Rebekah McLeod in the post of Superintendent of the Presidency Training School for Mistresses, Madras. Attention is solicited to the D.P.I.'s recommendation roll in G.O.No.211 R., Home (Edn.), dated the 17th September 1917. The Director therein proposed Miss McLeod's confirmation with effect ~~from~~ from the 15th December 1915, the date on which Miss Dixon retired from service. He further recommended the confirmation of Miss Corrie Gordon in the post of Lecturer in Kindergarten, Teachers' College, Saidapet, in succession to Miss McLeod with effect from the 13th March 1916, but suggested that the grant ^{to her} of the full pay of the post need not have retrospective effect.

2. It will be seen from the papers in G.O.No. 188 R., dated the 20th August 1917, that Miss Patterson was confirmed in the post of Third Inspectress of Girls' Schools only with effect from the 30th June 1917, the date of receipt of the Secretary of State's despatch by the Government of India although she had been acting as Inspectress of Girls' Schools for a pretty long period. If a similar rule is to be observed in the present case also, Miss McLeod's confirmation may be made to have effect from the 19th instant, the date of receipt by this Government of the Secretary of State's despatch. Miss Corrie Gordon can also be confirmed only with effect from that date and no question of the grant of full pay to her with retrospective effect will then arise.

3. Both Miss McLeod and Miss Gordon may be required to execute the usual agreements. A draft order is submitted for approval. The D.P.I. may perhaps be asked u.o. whether he sees any objection to the terms of the order.
