This case coming on for hearing of evidence on 26th October 1917 and 31st October 1917 the Court delivered the following Judgment in C.C.119 of 1917.

1 The accused is a boy of 12 years of age pleads guilty to a charge under section 408 I.P.C. and states that his parents are living at Rameswaram and that they do not look after him.
2 P.Ws. prove that on 3-10-1917 the accused who was ^{working} as a servant for P. W.1, a merchant of Tirumalai was sent out by his master with a plate of sweet meats for sale. He did not return. Search was made for him on Tirumalai at Tirupati and Renigunta. He was found in a Drama pandal in Tirupati the following day by P.W.2.

3 The brass tray (worth Rs.4 or 5) was found with P.W.3 at the Gali Gopuram which is some miles from R.N. P.W.1's shop, P.W.3 states that the accused left the plate with her taking 2 annas worth of plantains, that he slept at the Gali Gopuram and disappeared before the morning.

4 P.W.4 the Sub Inspector Tirupati states that accused had Rs.0-7-5 in cash with him when arrested. The boy pleads guilty to having taken and disposed of the tray which was entrusted to him.

5 Finding him guilty I hereby sentence him to undergo one month's rigorous imprisonment for an offence under section section 408 I.P.C. Looking to his age and the fact that he is without any one to look after him and lives by begging I consider that it is advisable to send him to the Reformatory school in lieu of imprisonment. The Medical Officer (C.W.1) certifies his age as 12 years and says he has no constitutional defects.

6. I hereby direct that the accused be sent to the Reformatory school at Chingalput and be detained there for 6 months.
