Madras Educational Rules

Ordering the publication in the Fort St. George Gazette of a notification altering rule 81 of the —.

READ—the following paper :—

Letter—from the Hon'ble Mr. J. H. Stone, M.A., F.R.H.S., C.I.E., Director of Public Instruction.

To—the Secretary to Government, Home (Education) Department.

Dated—Madras, the 4th February 1918.

No.—R.C. 4110/16.

I have the honour to address Government in regard to the revision of rule 81 of the Madras Educational Rules. A revision of this rule was not proposed by me in the draft copy of the revised edition of the Madras Educational Rules submitted for the approval of Government with my letter R.C. No. 4110 of 1916, dated 27th March 1917 read in G.O. No. 1215, Home (Education), dated 24th September 1917, in the belief that the mode of its revision might depend upon the nature of the orders to be passed by Government on the proceedings of the conference held in March 1916. I have, however, come to the conclusion that the rule may with advantage be amended now without reference to those orders. As it stands the rule is unsatisfactory and complicated. It lays down for instance the following :—

“Any school with fewer than four standards”...one teacher ;
while obviously a school with, for example, three standards and a strength of 40 will require two teachers. The revised rule merely lays down general principles, is elastic and has qualifications which will make it easily workable. I therefore submit herewith for the approval of Government and publication in the Fort St. George Gazette a notification in duplicate suggesting the substitution of a revised rule in place of the existing rule 81.

2. I request the favour of early orders on the subject so as to enable me to incorporate the new rule in the reprint of the Madras Educational Rules which is being arranged for with reference to G.O. No. 1510, Home (Education), dated 29th November 1917.

Order—No. 161, Home (Education), dated 11th February 1918.

The following notification will be published in the Fort St. George Gazette :—

NOTIFICATION.

Substitute the following for rule 81 of the Madras Educational Rules :—

“The number of teachers must depend partly upon the number of pupils and partly upon the number of standards. So far as may be, there should be a teacher for each standard or section of a standard ; but two or more standards may be taught by a single teacher where their aggregate strength does not exceed 25 for standards higher than the fourth or 30 for standards lower than the fifth. If in any standard there are more than 35 pupils it should, wherever possible, be divided into sections and no section should contain more than 35 pupils.”

Secretary to Government.

To the Director of Public Instruction.
