Cur. No. 354/18

Station M a d r a s, Dated the 11th January 1918

From (Name) The Hon. Mr. J. H. Stone, M.A., C.I.E., F.R.H.S.

(Designation) DIRECTOR OF PUBLIC INSTRUCTION.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras, HOME (EDUCATION) Department.
(Through the Accountant - General).
Sir,

In my Recommendation Roll, Camp No. 8/1917, dated 19th June 1917, I brought to the notice of Government that I should have proposed for the Junior Lecturership in the Ceded Districts College, Anantapur, M.R.Ry. P.K. Anantanarayana Ayyar Avargal, M.A., L.T., Senior Assistant Professor in Physics in the Presidency College, in preference to M.R.Ry. V. Appa Rau, but for the necessity of retaining him in the Presidency College for the delivery of University Lectures in Physics and that I therefore deferred my recommendation of his transfer to Anantapur until the last term had expired. Mr. Jones, Professor of Physics, Presidency College, whom I have again consulted regarding the withdrawal of

M.R.Ry. Anantanarayana Ayyar from the above institution at the beginning of the current term still opposes his transfer on the ground that it "would greatly damage the work in the Physical Laboratory at the college and would be bound to disturb the work at Anantapur College to have a change of staff in the middle of the year's work". At the same time he regrets the loss to Anantanarayana Ayyar of the promotion which his ability and seniority entitle him to and with a view to compensate him for the pecuniary loss to which he would be subjected by being continued in the Presidency College he suggests that the post held by this assistant should be included in the cadre of the Provincial Educational Service. There is much force in the above remarks, especially as it would be difficult to replace adequately a man of Anantanarayana's attainments and laboratory experience with Honours classes, but it seems undesirable to propose the inclusion of one Assistant Professor in the Provincial Educational Service while general questions regarding the future of that service are under consideration. In the interests, however, of both the institutions concerned and of M.R.Ry. P.K. Anantanarayana Ayyar ~~wherein~~, I have the honour to recommend that he be granted with effect from the 1st instant a compensatory or local allowance of Rs. 50/- per mensem, the charge being met from the saving of Rs. 50/- which has been accruing monthly in the provision for salaries made in the budget for the Junior Lecturer, Ceded Districts College, Anantapur, owing to the salary of M.R.Ry. V. Appa Rau, the present incumbent of the post, being limited to Rs. 200/- per mensem against the sanctioned salary of Rs. 250/- per mensem. There is, I beg to submit, nothing extraordinary in this proposal which has for its object merely to satisfy the legitimate expectations of M.R.Ry. Anantanarayana Ayyar and at the same time to provide as effectively as possible for the science teaching in the two institutions.

2. If my proposal is accepted I shall give Anantanarayana to understand clearly that the grant of the above allowance will not give him claim to a salary of Rs. 250/- per mensem in the event of his being promoted to the Provincial Educational Service at a future date nor any seniority over officers already in the Ninth Grade of that service.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

G. H. Srinivasan
For Director of Public Instruction.

No. Spl.15-Edn. 17876

FORWARDED.

2. The allowance proposed is apparently a compensatory personal allowance as defined in Rule 2 II of App. B (B) of the Madras Supplement to the Civil Service Regulations, as a compensatory local allowance does not appear to be admissible under rule 1-I of the same Government of India Resolution, the additional allowance not being "granted on account of the unhealthiness or expensiveness of the locality", vide Rule I of App. B(A) to the Madras Supplement to the Civil Service Regulations.

3. M.R.Ry., P.K. Anantanarayana Ayyar was promoted to his present grade of Rs. 200/- on 1st April 1916, and his case does not therefore satisfy condition (c) of Rule 2 II (1) of Appendix B (B), nor should such an allowance except for very special reasons exceed 20 per cent of the officer's pay. $200 \times \frac{20}{100} = 40$

 CNo. 276A from the D.P. I, no 354 of 11.1.18 [Subject: — Grant of a compensatory or local allowance of Rs. 50 p.m to Mr. R. K. P. K.
 Anantavarayana Ayyar and.]

Submitted that the D.P. I. appears to have made a case for special treatment as pointed out by the A.C. the allowance will be classed as compensatory personal allowance and that Mr. Anantavarayana Ayyar does not satisfy the condition that he should have been at least five years on the same pay.
 In view, however, of the special circumstances of the case it is for consideration whether the condition may be waived. Financial may be consulted. It may, however, be pointed out that

7.2.18 if Mr. Anantavarayana Ayyar is promoted to the Provincial Education Service, he will draw only Rs 200/- per

7.2.18 If Mr. Anantavarayana Ayyar had been sent to Anantapur
 he would have been paid Rs 250, the pay of the appoint. By his being retained in the Pres. College he loses Rs 50 a month. His retention here is in the interests of the Pres. College & on account of the University

NOTES.

The grant of the allowance proposed seems therefore only equitable & the amount is available.

13.2.18

The Accountant General's ruling is definite. The allowance is not admissible. Even condition (b) is not satisfied.

2. As the officer will get his Rs 50 ~~after~~ the close of the academic year, I do not think that a case is made out for invoking special sanction.

A draft order is submitted for approval.
