The Hon'ble Rao Bahadur M. Ramachandra Rao Pantulu.

Home (Education) Department.

Q.99. Will the Government be pleased to state whether any programme for the progressive expansion of primary education in this Presidency has been drawn up other than the programme published in Government Order No.1585., dated 15th December 1917?

Home Education Dept

The ~~last~~ ^{last} scheme drawn up for the expansion of primary education was the one submitted to the Govt. of India with letter no 45, dated 16th January 1914. This scheme together with details as to the action taken up to 1917 was laid on the Edibro' Table. They are contained in fo. no 247 of 22.2.17. In fo no 1585 of 15.12.17 subsidies were sanctioned to local bodies towards the opening of 677 new elementary schools. No proposals are now under consideration for the establishment of any additional schools.

2. The following draft answer is for approval:—

~~No other programme has been drawn up for consideration.~~

I think the answer is that the

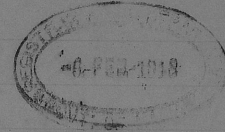

for. asked by the Hon. member does not need to contain a programme for the progressive expansion of ^{elementary} primary education, that the such programme has been drawn up ^{and that while} because of the present uncertainty of finances it is impossible
