From (Name) Sir F. A. Nicholson, K.C.I.E.,

(Designation) Honorary Director of Fisheries.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
HOME (Education) Department.

Sir,

Referring to G.O. No.1468, Home (Education), dated the 19th November 1917, creating a permanent appointment of an Oil Chemist and Soap Expert in the Department of Industries and appointing Mr. A. K. Menon to the post, I have the honour to point out that in the G.O. quoted above no mention has been made about Mr. Menon's previous service in this Department. I therefore beg to recommend that his service with Fisheries which began on the 15th December 1913 be treated as service qualifying both for pension and leave; Mr. Menon has done much useful work during that period and inter alia, established the present Soap Factory and the beginning of a scientifically-run soap industry for the Presidency.

2. Mr. C. A. Innes, Director of Industries, who was - consulted in the matter agrees with the above recommendation.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

F. A. Valabon
Honorary Director,
Madras Fisheries.

Sir,

With reference to Government endorsement No. 84A-1 dated the 18th January 1918 referring to me for remarks letter No. Ref. 12 dated the 10th January 1918 from the Honorary Director of Fisheries, recommending that the temporary service of Mr. A. K. Menon, from the 15th December 1913 to the 18th November 1917 as oil expert may be treated as service qualifying for pension and leave, I have the honour to state that the temporary service in question can count for leave and pension under articles 370 and 201 of the Civil Service Regulations, if the present appointment of Oil Chemist and Soap Expert now created in G.O. No. 1468, Home (Education) dated the 19th November 1917 can be considered to be the same as the appointment of Oil Expert created temporarily in G.O. No. 3553 Revenue, dated the 3rd December 1913.

X "The same appointment on the same est. must be a permanent one from the time of the permanent posting in order to secure the benefit of the article the officer may not count service in a temporary establishment by reason of his being transferred thence to another permanent est. It is clear, therefore, that an officer employed temporarily in a permanent establishment has no claim to count such temporary service for pension or transfer to a permanent appointment of a different character."

C.No 334 from the Hon'ble Director of Fisheries No 1287 10.1.15
C.No 330 A.R. No 18116 of 4.2.18

The Honorary Director of Fisheries recommends that Mr A. K. Menon's Temporary Service in the Dept of Fisheries from 15th December 1913 to 18th November 1917 may be treated as service qualifying both for pension and leave. The A.R. has no valid objection to the proposal provided the present appointment of oil chemist and Soap expert in which Mr Menon was ^{in G.O. No 1462 of 17.11.17} confirmed can be considered to be the same as the appointment of oil expert which was created temporarily in G.O. No 3553 Revd 3.12.13 and which was held by Mr Menon till he was confirmed in the new appointment of oil chemist and Soap expert. Attention is in this connection solicited to paras 1, 2 and 5 of G.O. 3553 Revd of 3.12.13 from which it will be seen that the temporary post of an oil expert was created ^{in 1913} with a view to eventually make it permanent. It was also expressly stated in para 5 of the G.O. that the permanent employment of Mr Kesava Menon who was appointed to the temporary post of oil expert, would depend on the results

I see no objection to the issue of the order as it stands. I believe the H.D. is coming up again to get about a reconsideration of the terms of the new job created but that is another question.
