Station Madras, Dated the 6th February 1918.

From (Name) M.R. Ry. Rao Sahab H. Krishna Sastri Avargal, B.A.

(Designation) Assistant Archaeological Superintendent for Epigraphy, Southern Circle.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

H O M E (Education Department.

Through the Accountant General, Madras.

Sir,

In submitting for orders of Government the papers relating to the claim of my Junior Assistant to transit pay and travelling allowance for joining the office at Madras, which the Accountant General has disallowed in his letter No. Tri. P.A. 16777, dated 10th January 1918 and audit slip No. A.B.H. Tri. P.A. dated 15th December 1917 (copies enclosed), I beg to state that the junior Assistant was on combined privilege leave and furlough for one year and 3 months from 4th September 1916 and that the headquarters of my office were transferred to from Ootacamund to Madras, under the orders of Government government conveyed in G.O.No. 1121, Public, dated 10th June 1916.

In reply to the audit slip of the Accountant General, I pointed out (this office No. 823, dated 21st December 1917) that none of the articles in the Civil Service Regulations quoted in the objection memo would seem to apply to the case under reference as there is no change <sup>then in no article</sup> transfer of appointment of the individual. As far as I could ascertain, in the Civil Service Regulations which explicitly provides for claims arising from transfers of headquarters. Nor is there any section which states that the rules relating to the changes of appointments are applicable to claims which arise from transfers of headquarters.

Under the circumstances, I beg to request that Government will be pleased to sanction under article 278 A of Civil Account Code the grant of transit pay and Travelling allowance amounting to Rs. 119/7/- of Mr. K.V. Subramanya Ayyar, as all the provisos of this article are satisfied in the case of the individual and as it is hard that for want of definite ruling in the Civil Service Regulations he should be deprived of a legitimate claim which is intended to cover the expenses necessitated by the Transfer of headquarters.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

H. Krishna Sastri.

Asstt. Archl. Supdt. for Epigraphy.

Copy of the Chief Superintendent's objection ~~as~~ (the Accountant-general's Office, Fort Saint George, Madras), No. A.B.V/Tri. P. A. dated 10th December 1917, to the Assistant Archaeological Superintendent for Epigraphy, Madras.

The travelling allowance bill of your establishment for December 1917 for Rs. 119-7-0, is herewith returned unpassed for want of the following information.

- (1) The date on which M.R.Ry. K.V. Subramanya Ayyar, first proceeded on leave, the nature of the leave and the full period of leave availed of by him and the actual date of his return from such leave.
- (2) The actual date on which the transfer of your office headquarters from Ootacamund was effected.
- (3) The authority under which travelling allowance for the above official and his family is now claimed.

II

The Assistant Superintendent's reply No. 803, dated 13th December 1917.

(1) M.R.Ry. K.V. Subramanya Ayyar proceeded on combined privilege leave and furlough for one year and 3 months from 4th September 1916 and returned to duty on 4th December 1917.

(2) The transfer of office from Ootacamund to Madras was effected on 1st October 1916.

(3) The authority under which the claim is made is G.O.No. 1121, Public, dated 10th June 1916 and article 1098 Civil Service Regulations.

Please turn Over.

Copy of the objection of the Accountant General's office, Audit slip No. A.B.H./62 Tri. P.A. dated the 15th December 1917, to the Assistant Archaeological Superintendent for Epigraphy, Madras.

Reference:- Travelling allowance bill of the establishment of the Assistant Archaeological Superintendent for Epigraphy for December 1917, for Rs. 119-7-0, dated 8-12-1917, presented at this office on the 13th December 1917 for preaudit and payment.

The above bill is herewith returned unpassed. As neither transit pay nor travelling allowance is admissible to K.V. Subramanya Ayyar Collection Assistant, as per articles 227 and 1105 of the Civil Service Regulations, read with para 3 under article 1121 on page 211 of the Madras Supplement to Civil Service Regulations, as he joined the new station after the expiry of his long leave.

IV

The Assistant Superintendent's reply No. 823, dated 21-12-1917.

Resubmitted.

(F) The claim to travelling allowance in the present case is made under the orders of G.O.No. 1121, Public, dated 10th June 1916.

None of the articles in the Civil Service Regulations quoted in the objection memo would seem to apply to <sup>the</sup> case under reference as there is no change or transfer of appointment of the individual.

In the absence of any rules in the Civil Service Regulations regulating the scale of travelling allowance admissible to officers in the case of transfers of Head quarters of the office, without involving change of appointment, the scale provided for in section 1098 had to be adopted.

Please Turn Over.

Copy of letter No. Tri. P.A. 16777, dated 10/11th January 1918, from the Accountant General, Madras, to the Assistant Archaeological Superintendent for Epigraphy, Madras.

In returning herewith the travelling allowance bill of your establishment for Rs. 119-7-0, I have the honour to state that M.R.Ry. K.V. Subramanya Ayyar, should in the circumstances explain be treated as if he had been transferred from Ootacamund to Madras during his leave. The articles quoted in this office audit slip A.B.H/62 Tri. P.A. dated the 15th December 1917, apply to his case and, as already stated, he is not eligible either for the transit pay or for travelling allowance for rejoining his appointment at Madras.

OFFICE OF THE ACCOUNTANT-GENERAL, MADRAS,

Fort St. George, the 22nd of February 1918.

No. Tri.P.A. 1928

Forwarded.

2. The transfer of the head-quarters of the Assistant Archaeological Superintendent for Epigraphy, Southern Circle, with effect from 1st October 1916 was sanctioned in G.O.No.1121 Public dated the 10th June 1916, and M.R.Ry., K.V.Subramanya Iyer, his assistant, went on combined leave from 4th September 1916. He had ample notice of the transfer, and his position does not seem to be different from that of an officer transferred from Ootacamund to Madras during long leave. Under Articles 227 and 1105 of the Civil Service Regulations, read with para 3 under Article 1121 on page 211 of the Madras Supplement to the Civil Service Regulations, it was held therefore that he was not entitled either to transit pay or to travelling allowance for rejoining his office at Madras. Further, the officer who acted for him during his long leave, was granted travelling allowance for his journey from Ootacamund to Madras in consequence of the change of head-quarters.

3. Article 278-A of the Civil Account Code referred to in the Assistant Archaeological Superintendent's letter has been superseded by Rule II.8 of the annexure to the Government of India Resolution No.361-F.A. dated the 24th July 1916 recorded in G.O.No.464 Financial dated the 17th August 1916. The proposal to grant transit pay and travelling allowance in this case may be sanctioned by Government under the above rule, if they are satisfied that there are special circumstances which would justify the concession.

4. If sanction is accorded, it is requested that the special circumstances justifying the sanction may be detailed in

4 Transit pay.

The case is ruled: for the order of Govt. under the claim (Transit pay)

for travelling allowance in the present case is not covered by any provision in the A. A. S.
The A. G.'s order: at p. 6 of the order would seem to give the impression that there are no exceptional circumstances which would justify an order admitting the claim under rule H. 8 printed at p. 6 of G. O. No. 4647, of the 17th August 1916. Subject to order, as directed regarding the claim is ruled:

26. 2. 18

27. 2. 18

No doubt there was ample notice to the officer of the transfer of headquarters. His locum tenens has been paid the allowance <sup>(provisional)</sup> for ~~operates~~ against the claim. The officer ~~too~~ would however have had to incur expenditure in moving his establishment from Col. to Kadav. It will be hard to deny him the allowance which will go to cover that expenditure. Had a permanently settled establishment had to be moved on account of the change of headquarters may be sufficient ground for the special sanction.

But probably during leave he was away from Ory; & the expense claimed for himself during he did not actually incur on account of the transfer of headquarters.

I do not think that the claim is admissible
