Requesting the Superintendent, Government Press, to arrange for the free supply to the Bibliotheque at Pondicherry of a copy of Mr. Thurston's Castes and Tribes of Southern India and the South Indian Inscriptions and to include the Bibliotheque in the distribution list of the annual reports on Archaeology and Epigraphy.

NOTES.

Page 1

Government House, Madras,
21st. February 1918.

My dear Davidson,

When His Excellency visited the Bibliotheque at Pondicherry, a request was preferred that the Madras Government would be so kind as to present copies of reprints of their old records or other works of historical or allied nature. His Excellency considers that this is a courtesy which might very well be shown and will certainly be greatly appreciated by the French authorities. Possibly some rare productions have already been presented to the Library; for example I saw a copy of Ananda Ranga Pillai's Diary there but that they may have been purchased. Copies of books such as Col. Love's 'Madras' and Thurston's 'Castes' might if possible be supplied now and the various productions of the Archaeological Department. Possibly also the Library might be put on the list of those bodies entitled to receive copies of these publications. Would you very kindly have the matter examined?

Yours sincerely,

T. E. Moir.

The Hon'ble Mr. L. Davidson, C.S.I., I.C.S.,
