In note throughout his correspondence the expression "The Queen Mary's College". I believe it should be "Queen Mary's College" without the article. One commonly hears of "the" St Joseph's College, but it is a mistake all the same & if it is, the Educ<sup>n</sup> Dept should not encourage it.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE,
Quindy,

23rd March 1918.

Dear Mr. Swamikannu Pillai,

In returning this file with the draft approved by His Excellency, I am to point out that the correct name of the College is "The Queen Mary College for Women" and not as it stands in the draft. It ought to be possible to verify this from the official reply received from the Government of India. I am to ask you kindly to do so and to see that the correct title is used henceforth in all correspondence connected with the College and also to ask you to communicate the correct title of the College to the D.P.I. and the College authorities to avoid any misapprehension.

Yours sincerely,

I still think it shd. be either "The Queen Mary College" or "Queen Mary College" + P.S.G.

I am to call attention to the letter from this Government to the Government of India dated 2nd December 1916 and to the Secretary of State's despatch dated 27th April 1917 in which the correct name of the College is given viz. the "Queen Mary's College for Women". The correct title should be used henceforth in all correspondence relating to the College.

Let Mori

Office please note B.O. 27-3-18
 L.D.S. Shaver restored the definite article in the draft letter to Govt.
 27-3-18 [Go No. 421-22 dt the 27-3-18]

The correct name of the College has been noted. Seeing that the D.P.D. and the college authorities are already using the correct name of the college as indicated above, it is for orders whether any further instructions to them are necessary with reference to K in the P.S.G.'s d.o. on page 3 ante.

Nothing further needs
 be done
 L.D.S.

It is better to write the attention of the D.P.D. to the correct name to avoid any mistake in future on his part or in that of the College Staff.

To D.P.D. u.o.

Find that Honble Mr. Stone writes "Queen Mary's College" without the article which I should have thought was correct. But the <sup>present</sup> orders are that we should conform to the designation adopted in the Despatches from the Secretary of State to the Govt of India, viz. "The Queen Mary's College".
