To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education)

Department.

Sir,

Thro' the Accountant-General.

I have the honour to state that in G.O. No.
(M) 1268 Home (Education) dated the 6th October 1917 sanction was accorded to the deputation of M.R.Ry. P.K. Rajamanikkam Naidu, Assistant in the Leather Trades School to Maihar and Allahabad to study the methods of tanning followed in those places. On his way to Maihar Mr. Naidu halted for a day at Bombay to see the Government tannery there. He did so under my orders since if he had taken the shorter route via Dhond and Manmad he would have wasted nearly a day at the latter place waiting for the connecting train.
The Accountant General has disallowed the railway fare
from Dhond to Bombay and Manmad. The extra expenditure

2
involved on account of the Bombay route is only Rs.18/- and I request that the Accountant-General be authorised to pass the amount.

2. The Accountant-General has also disallowed Mr.
Naidu's claim for halting allowances at Maihar and Allahabad amounting to Rs.21/- under Note 2 to Art. 1138 A of the Civil Service Regulations. In paragraph 5 of my letter No.R.O.C. 655 dated the 26th September 17 I recommended that in addition to railway fare, and deputation allowance Mr. Naidu should be allowed halting allowances at the rate ordinarily admissible to an officer of his rank viz. Rs.1-8-0 per day. This amount would not even cover the expenses and considering the extra out of pocket expenditure incurred by Mr. Naidu. I request that Government may be pleased to sanction the payment of halting allowances as a special case.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Chinnay

Director of Industries.

2. There is no audit objection to the sanction of Government being accorded to the payment to M.R.Ry.P.K.
Rajamanickam Naidu of Rs.18/-, the amount of Railway fare from Dhond to Bombay and Manmad, under the circumstances now explained.

3. But as Mr.P.K. Rajamanickam Naidu was granted under Article 68 A of the Civil Service Regulations a deputation allowance of Rs.30/- per mensem in G.O.No.1268, Home, (Education) dated the 6th October 1917, he cannot be granted daily allowance for his halt at Maihar and Allahabad. (vide note 2 to Article 1138 A of the Civil Service Regulations).

Subject Halting allowances to Mr. P. K. Rajamainickam Nayudu

[C no 677A] from the Officer in charge of the Dept of Sd. no 2413 of 18.2.18.

Mr. James requests that

(1) Sanction may be accorded to the payment to Mr. P. K. Rajamainickam Nayudu of Rs 18 the amount of railway fare from Dhond to Bombay and Maunad and

(2) that Mr. Nayudu may be allowed, as a special case, halting allowances at Maiker and Allahabad amounting to Rs 21.

2. In the circumstances explained in para 1 on pp 1-2 C.F. the first proposal may be sanctioned. The A.C. has no audit objection.

3. In regard to the second ^{proposal} however the Accountant General objects that since Mr. Nayudu was granted a deputation allowance of Rs 30 p.m. under article 68 A-C.S.R., he cannot, under note 2 to article 1138 A-C.S.R., be granted daily allowances for his halt at Maiker and Allahabad. Halting (or daily) allowances may, under clause (a) of the note referred to, be ~~granted to~~ ^{be granted to} gazetted officers if the period of training does not exceed one month. The period in the present case was about ^{two} para 3 on p 3 C.F.

* It is now Note 3-as amended by correction 6/12/18.

two weeks but Mr Nayudu is not a gazetted officer. Hence no allowance is admissible unless he is declared to be a gazetted officer for the purposes of the article 1138 A. C.S.R.

It is however submitted that Mr Deane in para 5 of his letter G.O. 1268 of 6.10.17 proposed that Mr Nayudu be allowed both his ordinary travelling allowances, viz double second class fare, plus daily allowance of Rs 18.00 a day and a deputation allowance of Rs 50 p.m for the period he was away. The allowance proposed was larger than ordinarily admissible (viz 1/5 of the pay ^{which} amounting to Rs 30), but Mr Deane expressed that the higher rate would only just cover the necessary expenses. This Dept^l also supported the proposal (pages 6-7 of the G.O. ibid); but the Financial Dept^l proposed to cut down the deputation allowance to Rs 30 on the ground that Mr Nayudu will draw travelling allowance & daily allowances - vide Asst Secy's ^(+ the Chief Secy's) recommendation on page 8 of the G.O. ibid. In view however of the objection raised by the A.C., the Financial Dept^l may be requested ^{to state whether they have any objection} either to declare Mr Nayudu as a gazetted officer for the purposes of article 1138 C.S.R.; or to raise the deputation allowance sufficiently high so as to allow Mr Nayudu to recover Rs 21 the amount of halting allowance in question.

Remarks

Mr. Rajamanickam Nayudu was deputed to "study the methods of training"; he was not sent on training. The answer to the L.A. is that the officer was not granted a deputation allowance under article 68 A but under article 81. He is therefore entitled to a daily allowance. Will accept payment of key fare from Ahmed to Bombay & Mahmood.
