Dear Sir,

I beg to invite reference to the application submitted by me about the end of April 1917 regarding the nomination of my son K. ANANDA RAU to the Indian Educational Service. I am glad to be able to state that I have received intimation from the Government of India that his name has now been included in the list of candidates for the Indian Educational Service. I have also received intimation that he has won the high and coveted distinction of the Smith's Prize.

I beg also to enclose copies of communications received by me from Messrs. Mark Hunter and Littlehailes, as both of them knew my son personally and their opinions would consequently receive the special consideration of the Government.

In view of these facts I sincerely hope and trust that the Government may find no difficulty in recommending him for one of the vacancies now existing or likely to arise in the near future in the Madras Presidency. I hope I may be permitted to suggest that for the present he may be appointed temporarily leaving the question of his confirmation for consideration in due course of time.

I would therefore respectfully request that the Government may be pleased to forward this application of mine together with the enclosures attached hereto to the Government of India with their recommendation, for which act I shall be ever thankful to Government.

Yours sincerely,

C. J. S. Srinivasan

Dear Sir,

I thank you very much for your letter and copies of testimonials granted to your son, which I have read with much pleasure and interest.

I congratulate you most warmly on the distinguished success secured by ANANDA RAU in gaining the Smith's Prize, as also on the whole of his career at Cambridge. It must be most gratifying to you as a father to know that he has done so well and has won such good opinion from his teachers at Cambridge. We, in this College, are all delighted. ANANDA RAU did us much credit while he was here, and if we cannot claim a share in his later distinctions, we can at least share in the rejoicings on them. I am glad to see that your son contemplates Educational work, and I hope he will succeed in obtaining a Professorship in our service.

Again thanking you,

I am

Yours sincerely,

(Sd.) MARK HUNTER.

DEAR RAO BAHADUR,

I have very much pleasure in congratulating you on your son's recent success at Cambridge and I hope you will convey to him my best wishes for his future success. We had a meeting in the College on Friday last, called for the purpose of congratulating Ramanujam on his election to a Fellowship of the Royal Society and your son on his winning the Smith's Prize. I was prevented from being present since I had a Senate Meeting followed by a Syndicate Committee Meeting, but I cannot say more on behalf of your boy than to hope that he will be able to obtain nomination to the Indian Educational Department—a walk in life that he himself earnestly desires.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

(Sd). R. LITTLEHAILES.

At the instance of the Govt. of India the D.P. I. has been requested to submit proposals for the filling up of the 4th vacancy in the cadre of the D. E. S. For orders whether they do from Mr. Krishnaswami Rao may be forwarded to the Director in continuation.

There is one I.E.S. place for a Mathematician in the Presidency; that of Professor Mathew in the Presidency College in which there is immediate prospect of a vacancy. I have had quantities of correspondence about Ananda Rao and this is what I have always sent. When there is a vacancy of course he will be considered.

We must have an Englishman for Hunter's vacancy and therefore I am of the opinion that the order is required properly by provision for the post.

Letter to the Govt. of India No 119 of 2-2-18 wherein it was intimated that

Govt. could express an opinion as to Mr Ananda Rao's eligibility for an appointment in the J.E.S. only after the receipt of a formal application and personal interview. It is doubtful whether a recommendation in the sense of Mr. Stone's note will satisfy Mr. Krishnaswami Rao who wants his son's claims to be considered in connection with existing vacancies or vacancies that may arise in the immediate future. Besides, the Govt. of India have already sanctioned the inclusion of Mr. Ananda Rao's name in the list of candidates eligible for appointment to the J. E. S. and very little purpose will be gained by making a vague recommendation in the sense of Mr. Stone's note.

Copy of Mr. Hardy's Testimonial.

TRINITY COLLEGE, CAMBRIDGE,
26th March 1918.

Mr. K. A. RAU has spent the last year in mathematical research, undertaken in part under my advice. Some of his results are contained in an Essay which obtained the Smith's Prize this year; and he has done other valuable work which will no doubt be published in due course. One short note has already been accepted for publication by the London Mathematical Society.

These facts together with Mr. Rau's record in examinations are sufficient to show that he is a mathematician of unusual ability; and my personal impression of him is such that I shall be very surprised if he does not have a distinguished career. His work has always been marked by a high degree of lucidity and critical power, and I should expect him to make an excellent teacher.
