From (Name) C. G. Mackay Esquire, I.C.S.,

(Designation) Registrar, High Court.

To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,
Home (Education). Department.

Hon'ble Sir,

I am directed to forward for the orders of His Excellency the Governor in Council an application, dated the 7th March 1918, from M.R. Ry Ravi Varma Avargal, Additional District Munsif of Coimbatore, for permanent exemption from passing the Precis writing test. I am also to enclose a copy of a letter, D.No.2524 dated the 13th March 1918 from the District Judge of Coimbatore and of the minutes recorded by the Hon'ble the Judges regarding the application.

I have the honour to be,
Hon'ble Sir,
Your most obedient servant,

Copy of letter No. D.N. 2524, dated the 13th March 1918
from the District Judge, Coimbatore.

I have the honour to forward herewith a letter from Mr. Ravi Varma requesting Government to exempt him permanently from passing the precis-writing examination.

Mr. Ravi Varma has had four years' practice in writing judgments and writes them sufficiently well. He has reached a time of life at which the passing of examinations becomes increasingly difficult and it is quite likely that he would never succeed in satisfying the examiners in this particular test. He will write his judgments no better, if he does pass it and I do not imagine that Government will dispense with his services, if he does not. I therefore recommend that he may be given the exemption for which he asks.

Minutes.

The Hon'ble Mr. Justice Ayling.- The applicant, a member of the Cochin Royal family, was undoubtedly appointed for special reasons, and his case is a peculiar one. At the time of his appointment Government were, I think, inclined to make large concessions in his favour: and presumably still are. Since then he has worked hard for nearly 4 years and earned good reports from his District Judges. Personally I hardly hoped that he would show such character and ability: and I would be inclined to recommend his exemption. It is pretty clear that he will never pass: and I think it would be a pity if a man of his class, after showing such unusual desire to serve usefully and determination in mastering his duties were ~~down~~^{the} on this ground alone.

The Hon'ble the Chief Justice.- I entirely agree.

Coimbatore,
Dated 7th March 1918.

Thro'

The District Judge,
C o i m b a t o r e.

Sir,

I have the honour to state that I passed the Tamil Full Test as per the directions contained in G. O. No. 282 (Home Educational). The only Special Test that I have yet to pass is the 'P r e c i s'. The Government were pleased to exempt me from it till the results of the Examination in 1917 were published. I am sorry to say that I was not successful in the examination. It is extremely difficult for a man of my age (viz., 41) to sit at a stretch for 4 hours and read and digest 40 to 50 pages of closely printed matter, and then write a -- precis of it. By the time I finish reading the book, I get head-ache and it is extremely difficult to concentrate my attention for such a long time. I find it a very trying ordeal. Therefore, I request that the Government may be pleased to exempt me permanently from appearing for this Precis Writing Test.

2. As to whether I may safely be exempted from this Examination, I request that a reference may be made to His Honour The District Judge.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

Additional District Munsif.
