Copy of certificate recorded in my Service Register on 12-6-1903 by Rao Bahadur. C. Krishnaswami Rao Avergal, the present District Judge of Ramnad while he was the District Munsif of Chidambaram.

"This man though not a Matriculate, is equal to one, and is well up in office work. He belongs to a respectable family and is of good character".

"The clerk though not a Matriculate is equal to one. I am satisfied with the way in which he discharged the work entrusted to him by me. He belongs to a respectable family. He has put in a service of five years. I concur with the opinion formed by my predecessor Rao. Bahadur. C. Krishnaswami Rao Avl: noted in his Service Register".

3. Copy of certificate recorded in my Service Register on 4-1-1912 by M. R. Ry. M. R. Narayanaswami Iyer Avl: late Sub Judge of Calicut while he was the Additional District Munsif of Villupuram.

4. Copy of extract from letter No 37 dated 7-1-1915 from M. R. Ry. A. S. Krishnaswami Ayyar Avl:, now Sub Judge of Guntur while he was the District Munsif of Mannargudi South Arcot.

"I have the honour to state that as Assistant to the Head clerk and as Record Keeper and Bench clerk his work in this court has been very satisfactory. Though he is not qualified under the Examination rules for promotion, I endorse the opinion of Rao Bahadur C. Krishnaswami Rao (now the District Judge of South Canara) that his knowledge of English is equal to that of a matriculate and he deserves for purposes of promotion to be recognised as a Matriculate. His knowledge of every branch of work is thorough. In my opinion he richly deserves promotion up to Rs 35/- and it will be doing nothing but bare justice to the claims of a hardworking and conscientious clerk like G. A. Ramaswami Ayyar whose domestic circumstances appear to have stood in the way of securing educational qualifications to exempt him from the Examination rules for promotion up to Rs 30/- at least.

"G. A. Ramaswami Ayyar who was the Seventh clerk of this court and who has now been transferred to the District Munsif's court of Mannargudi, was doing his duties of the Copyist Examiner for some time and acted as the Assistant to the Trial clerk for the remaining period. During the period that he was working under me I ^{found him} ~~formed his~~ conscientious, painstaking, and up to date in the discharge of his duties. Though he has not passed any University Examination, he deserves encouragement."

The applicant richly merits the exemption he seeks - to obtain at the hands of the Government. He has been long - in service and as borne out by the uniformly good testimonials he has obtained from successive officers under whom he has been serving copies of some of which have been annexed to his application, he is a hardworking, intelligent man, quite well up - in his work. I sincerely wish and hope that he would be more fortunate in his endeavour to obtain exemption this time, than on the previous occasions. He has studied up to the old - Matriculation standard and possesses a good knowledge in English and is not behind the modern School final candidates as regards general proficiency. Should the new scheme of revision of - salaries to the clerks of this department, come into force and this man not get the increase of pay for his post, the case - will be truly a hard one as he is the most senior in his grade in this office. This application is strongly recommended.

This application is strongly recommended. A new fact that has been brought to my notice, since the date of a former similar application by G A Ramasamy Iyer, is this, that he rendered useful service to the public at the time of the disastrous floods of 1913, which met with a pretty negotiation at the hands of the then collector of this district. His good nature is exemplified in this, together with the uniformly good work he has been turning out these 18 years, as ameen and clerk, with, I feel confident, secure him the exemption from educational gratifications, which he asks at the hands of the Government. The splendid testimonials which he has appended to his application seem to fully justify the grant of the concession that he prays for.

The humble petition of M. Singaravelu Pillai, Copyist Examiner, District Munsif's Court, Chidambaram, respectfully sheweth.

That your Excellency's petitioner has passed the Lower Secondary Examination and studied up to the Matriculation standard, that he has put in a service of nearly 16 years during which period he had been an ameen for 13 years and has acted as Clerk on Rs. 20/- on several occasions;

That he was confirmed as 1st grade Amin on Rs. 20/- on 1-4-1916 and as Copyist Examiner, on Rs. 20/- on 1-3-1917;

That during these years of service, he has been doing his work to the entire satisfaction of his superiors and that he is well acquainted with all branches of clerical work;

That for want of higher educational qualifications, he has no prospects of promotion in the Department and that he therefore most humbly prays that your Excellency may be graciously pleased to exempt him from the operation of examination rules for promotion to the higher grades of clerkships and to the post of Deputy Nazir in a District Munsif's Court.
