or near Berwada was being systematically investigated by Mr Green. No report has however yet been received on the subject. As the construction of the Vizagapatam ^(Bentley) is to be undertaken by the Bengal Nagpur Railway Company the supply of cement for the work will ^(presumably) be arranged for by the company itself.

2. The South Indian Industrial manufacture cement in Madras and a reference has recently been made to the Indian Munitions Board enquiring whether the Board has any objection to this Govt entering into a one-year agreement with the firm for the supply of cement required for Govt purposes in this Presidency. The Board's reply is awaited.

the following draft answer for approval:—

Govt will consider the suggestion as to the supply of cement for the purposes.
