Letter from Rev. J.H. Maclean, Correspondent, Missionary Educational Council of South India, Conjeevaram, dated 27th February 1918 to the Director of Public Instruction.

With reference to your Proceedings Ref. on C.No. 26/16, dated 22nd December 1917 and in continuation of my letter of the 20th instant, I have the honour ~~to~~ on behalf of the council to submit the following proposals for such changes in the personnel of the committees as circumstances make necessary.

1. Schleswig Holstein Mission Committee. Rev. H. Dixon Smith in place of Rev. W.V. Higgins, who has gone on furlough, and Rev. E. Neudoerffer in place of the late Mr. D. Lazarus. Mr. Dixon Smith belongs to the same mission as his predecessor. Mr. Neudoerffer is a member of the Rajamundry Mission, through which the necessary financial aid comes. He is already recognized as correspondent of a number of schools belonging to that Mission. He is a Canadian and a supporter of the cause of the allies.

2. Hermannsburg Committee. Rev. S.C. Burger in place of Rev. V. Mac Cauley who is about to proceed on furlough and Mr. J.D. Muyskens in place of Mr. F.M. Potter, who has left India. Mr. Burger has been recognised by Government as Secretary of the Ohio Mission, which has undertaken the responsibility for the work of Hermannsburg Mission. Mr. Muyskens is an American citizen and is already recognized as Correspondent of the high school in Tirupati and several other schools formerly belonging to the Hermannsburg Mission.

3. Leipzig Mission Committee: Rev. C.H. Monahan, Rev. P. Pleijal and Mr. J.D. Asirvatham, B.A.L.T., The two former may be regarded as the successors of Mr. Langdale Smith and myself, who expect to go on furlough shortly, and Mr. Asirvatham is an additional member. Mr. Mondhan is a senior missionary of the Wesleyan Society. Mr. Pleijal is one of the younger Swedish Missionaries. He is allowed by Government to work in Madras and the neighbourhood, and his sympathies are decidedly on the side of the allies.

No change is necessary in the case of Basel Mission Committee.
