Sir,

Mr. Noehren, Adviser to Government on Physical Education, has laid before me a request of the Assistant Physical Director that he may be permitted to visit Ceylon for about a month during the period for which the schools of Madras are closed during which therefore there would be little or no opportunity for work in the schools. He further stated that the Assistant Physical Director wished to avail himself of the opportunity of studying the Senior Scout System which had been recently sanctioned by the Headquarters of the Boy Scout Association, London, and which was being tried in Ceylon. I thereupon requested Mr. Noehren to ascertain and report whether the
