Scholarship for Indian Women
Graduates to be awarded in 1918 as notified in the Fort St
George Gazette of 22nd January.
The enclosed statements give the required particulars about me.

at 7/83

I request you will kindly recommend me to the Government if the Scholarship is granted to me I shall do my best to qualify myself for the practice of my profession and to make myself useful during my stay in England.

I am a medical graduate having passed the L.M.S. examination of the University of Madras in May 1917 and have since then been House-Surgeon at the Victoria and General Hospital, Triplicane, Madras.

I was a stipendiary of the Sufferin Fund when I was a student of the Madras Medical College - I am anxious to proceed to England this year as I can have the assistance of two of my brothers who are now in England, but it is very doubtful if they will be there next year.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Yours most obedient servant

Elizabeth Matthai.

Subject. State Scholarship for Indian women.

Only one candidate, Elizabeth Mathai L.M.S., has applied for the State Scholarship for Indian women. The Surgeon General considers that she is not a suitable candidate for the scholarship. The terms and conditions relating to this scholarship will be found in G.O. N° 1358 & Co., dated the 9th December 1915. The scholarship is intended principally for the study of medicine and the qualification prescribed in the case of medical candidates is the possession of an Indian degree in medicine. Miss Mathai being an L.M.S., possesses this qualification. It is not known why the S.G. considers her to be unsuitable.
