Sir,

A few fresh inscriptions in Brāhmī characters were secured during my last tour ^{which} ~~and~~ may interest many scholars on palaeographical grounds. Some of the forms of the most popular deity Durgā were also discovered, engraved on a rock on the Yanakadurga hill at Bezwaḍa. The latter will give an idea of what fantastic forms the goddess was capable of assuming according to mantrāsāstrā. I have therefore the honour to request that ^(X) the permission required in para 2 of G.O. No. 1255, Home (Education) dated the 27th November 1916, may be granted for the issue of two plates with my current Annual Report on Epigraphy for 1917-18. The expenditure on this ^{account} may be met from
