Department.

Sir,

With reference to the enclosed list received from the Accountant General, I have the honour to recommend that the Extention of service granted on behalf of Miss M.A. Jupe, Assistant Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Coimbatore Girls' Range, in G.O.No. 314 (Home) Education, dated 6th March 1917, be further extended till the 31st October 1918 (inclusive). She wishes to continue in service till that date and she is still strong enough to discharge her duties efficiently.

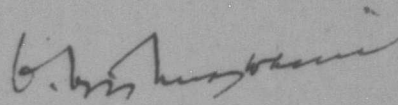

2. M.R. Ry B. Raghavendra Rao Avargal does not desire extension. He may therefore be permitted to retire with effect from the 18th August 1918.

3. The honesty of these two officers has never to my knowledge been called in question.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

for Director of Public Instruction.

C.No.1146A, From the D.P.I. R.O.C.No.1533, dated 30-4-18

Subject.- Further retention in service of Miss M.A.Jupe and the retirement from service of M.R.Ry.B.Raghavendra Rao.

Under the recent orders of the Government of India (in G.O.798, Financial, dated 10-12-17) Miss Jupe should ordinarily be required to retire. The D.P.I. puts forth grounds which would not ordinarily avail. The difficulty in securing the services of lady officers qualified for posts like the one in question is obvious. "Unquestionable public grounds" may therefore be presumed to exist in the present case. Though this is the third extension it is for a short period only.

May I. Can D.P.I. recommend the extension with reference to the article?

D.P.I. (uo).

The new rule was overlooked. I cannot say that the extension is necessary on unquestionable public grounds.
