To The Secretary to the Government of Madras,

Home (Education) Department.

Sir,

The Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Northern Circle, reported to me in January last that the building in which the office of the assistant Inspectress of Girls' Schools, Ganjam-Vizagapatam Girls' Range, was till then located, was situated in a small lane in the middle of dwelling houses and consequently was unfit for an office. She further stated that there had been cases of epidemics such as plague and small-pox in the immediate neighbourhood and that the building too was infested with rats. She therefore directed the assistant Inspectress of schools to remove her office to another building immediately and requested me to approve of her action as it was most undesirable to have the office in the old place
