Stonehouse Hill, The Nilgiris.

Sir,

In G.O.No. 786 Home (Educational) Department

dated the 17th June 1918, the Government sanctioned a special scholarship in favour of S. Dakshinamurti a - student of the Glasgow University. In paragraph 2 of the G.O. the Accountant General was requested to provide the scholar with a second class passage to England. Mr. Dakshinamurti has now asked me whether he can be provided with any Travelling Allowance from Bezwada to the port of departure. I submit his request for consideration of the Government.

I have the honour to be,

Sir,

Your most obedient servant,

A.Y.G. Campbell

Collector.

Travelling allowance to S. Dakshinamurti who has been awarded a scholarship

The A.G. has been requested to provide ~~the~~ S. Dakshinamurti with a second class passage to England. He now asks whether he can be granted any travelling allowance from Bezawada to the port of departure.
Candidates who are awarded State scholarships tenable in England are paid ~~now~~ second class railway fare together with the cost of any extra luggage from the railway station nearest to their place of residence to the port of embarkation. Dakshinamurti has been granted a Special scholarship in consideration of his poor circumstances. It is for Though this is a Special scholarship, we are following the usual procedure adopted in the case of ordinary State scholarships. We may therefore exceed the payment of passage up to the port of embarkation to this case also. We have done so already in the case of Mr. Sears, who was granted, as in the present case, a Special European Scholarship - G.O. No. 904 of 16.8.15.
